ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

Carl
Hey man it's been great in English
But this is the last one
I don't know if I'm glad to go back to English & I don't know I'm ready to get drunk
I'm just ready to know you are Too Drunk.

CAL,
it's been fun knowing you & thanks for all the rides to school you gave me (and Pep/Head) you've been a great friend and I hope we don't tear up the house & take horses to bed when your parents are in HAWAII. (party, party, party)
Dad C

Carl,

I knew I should have followed you guys to Padre. I probably would not have gotten a ticket.
Come by some this summer.
There will always be a party ready to start up.

Carl

it's been sitting to know
 these past 4 years.
 hope that you have fun
 J.C. J.C.'s I will probably be there w/ you.
 Carl, it's been a lot of fun in Bowling and Anatomy. Those cats will stay with me forever, and so will your corny jokes.

Mike Zeigler

Carl,
 IF you Feel like I d
 you cant wait to q
 the hell out of here
 We need to party t summer with Todd or something.
 Take it easy.

 HIS IN THE FUTURE.
 MICHELLE

Carl -
 you are one of the nicest guys I know,
 not to mention Sunny.
 I hope you have a blast
 after you graduate and maybe we will see each other this Summer.

Love,
 Wendy Wood

Who stole our cats?
 Good luck in college.
 Neal Duncan
 Give them back now
 Carl.
 Enough is enough.
 HOLD ON TO YOUR

So much fun. I'll miss you next year!
I'm sure I'll see you this summer, but not Don't raise too much hell and try to stay out of trouble! Keep in touch.

Love ya lots,
EISA

even though I didn't get to know you too well. I guess somebody had to cut out class. You & Cam did a dandy job though. Have a great summer & good luck
after heights.
Love

Carl,
I really don't know you too well but I'm ~~so~~ sure

two roads diverged in a yellow wood, and sorry I could not travel both and be one traveler, long I stood, and looked down one as far as I could to where it bent in the undergrowth, then took the other as just as fair and having perhaps the better claim because it was grassy and wanted wear; though as for that passing there had worn them really about the same, and both both that morning equally lay in leaves no step had trodden black. oh, I kept the first for another day! yet knowing how way leads on to way

I doubted if I should ever come back I shall be telling this with a sigh somewhere ages and ages hence; two roads diverged in a wood, and I

I took the one less traveled by and that has made all the difference.

— Robert Frost

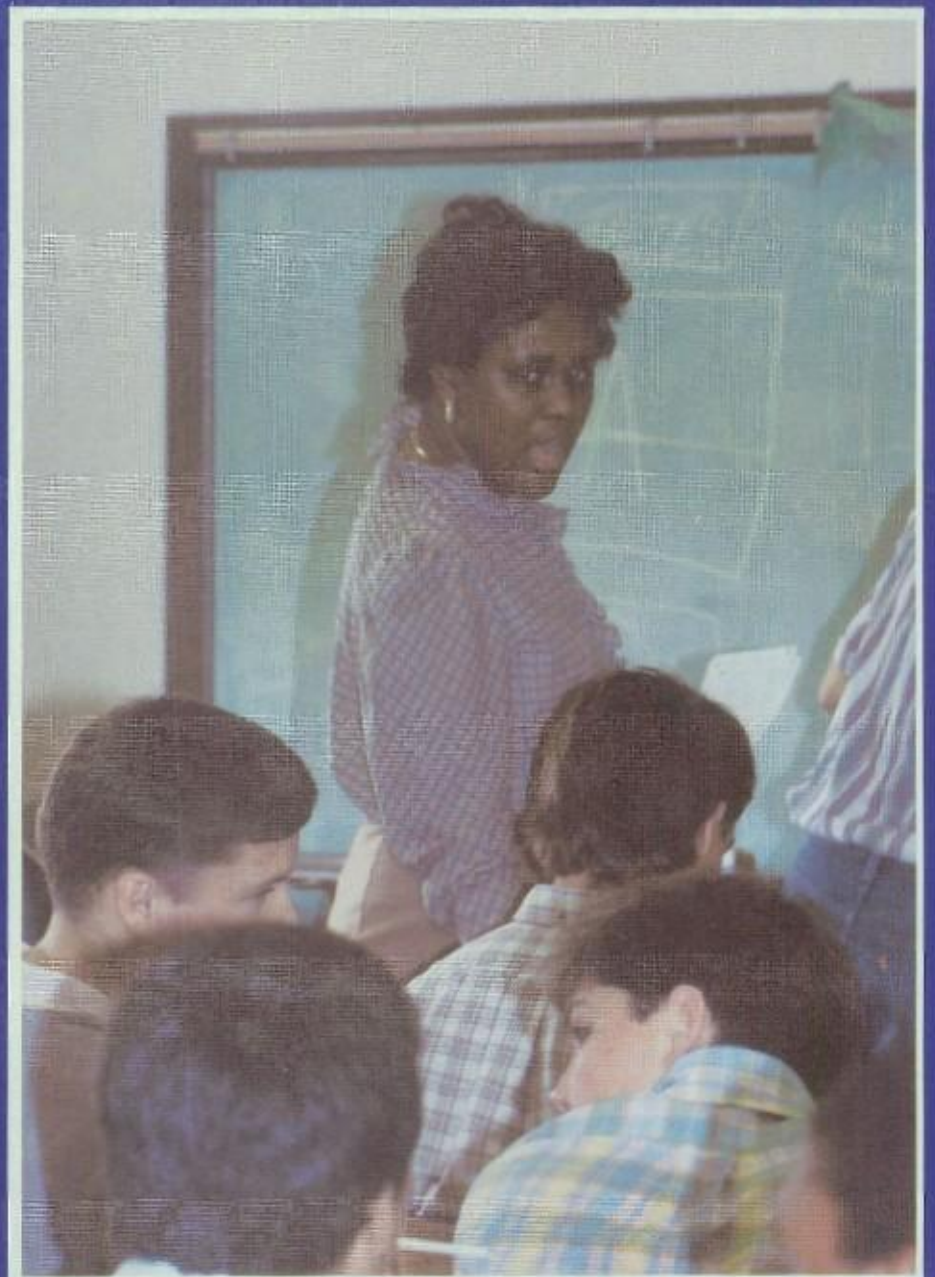

All people must make choices every day of their lives. Most are minute and trivial. There are those, however, that have a great impact on our lives. It is with these choices that wisdom and guidance is needed.

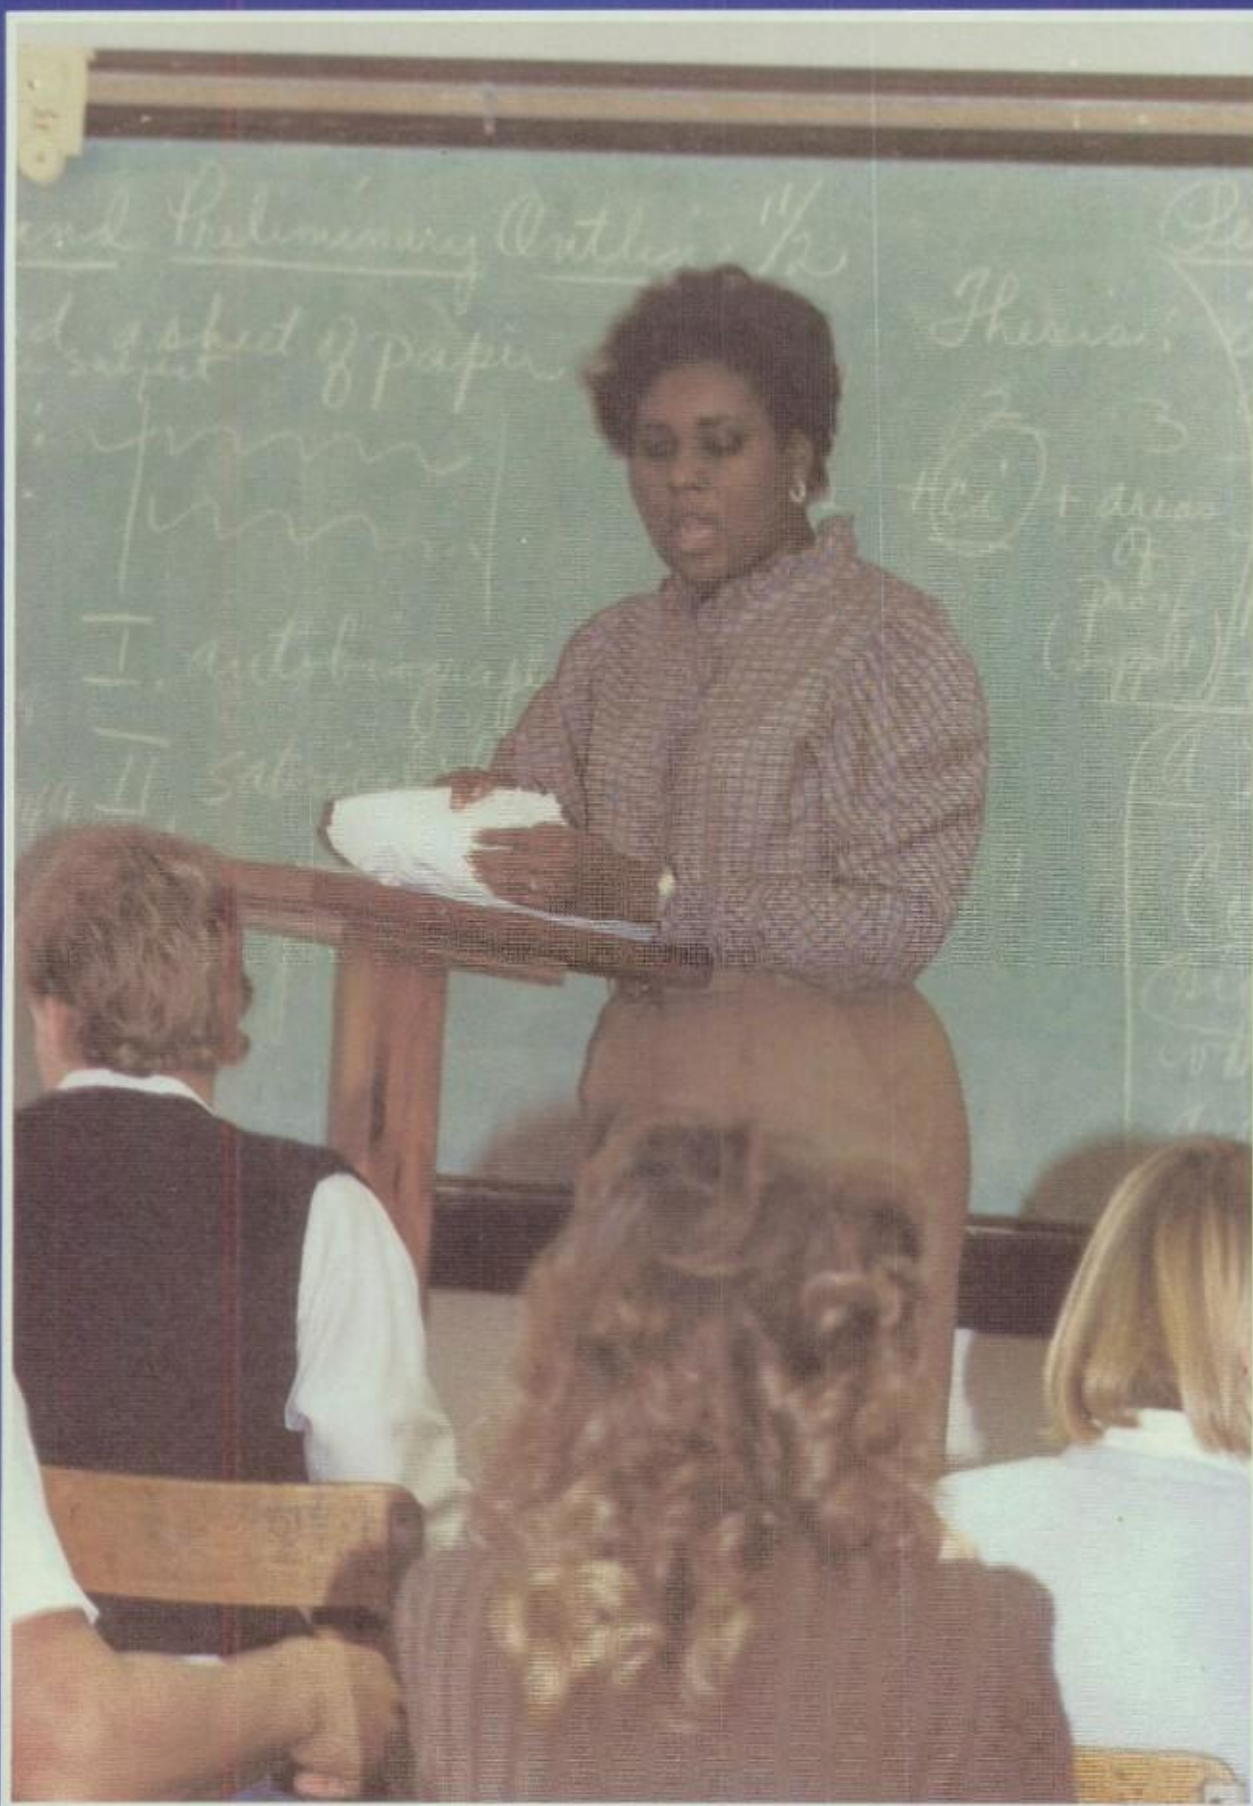

There is a person here at Heights who readily and willingly offers encouragement along with sound advice. Whether it is a minor choice, such as choosing a report topic, or a major decision, there is a mature, caring voice to advise. It is the individual to whom the 1985 Yellow Jacket is dedicated. Our source of inspiration:

School Board Receives Top Honors in the State

The Fort Worth School Board had a very successful year. The state decided on new, more rigorous requirements and the school board enforced them. They implemented the new grading system that excluded the grade of "D."

The board worked very hard and their efforts were rewarded. "The Fort Worth Board of Education was selected as the outstanding board in the state for 1984 by the Texas Association of School Administrators," stated Joe Sherrod, Director of Communications for the district. "The award was presented to the board at the annual convention of TASA and TASB in San Antonio on September 30."

MR. AHHS: STEVEN GAUNTT

At Arlington Heights we are fortunate to have amongst us Steven Gauntt. A three-year member of the National Honor Society, Steve served as its secretary this year. Steve served as President of the Sophomore Class, Vice-President of the Student Body his junior year, and as a senior served as President of the Student Body. Steve also participated in the United High School Student Council. He played baseball all four years, three of them on varsity, and few will forget the hustle of number 40 on the football field.

MISS AHHS: LOU MURRIN

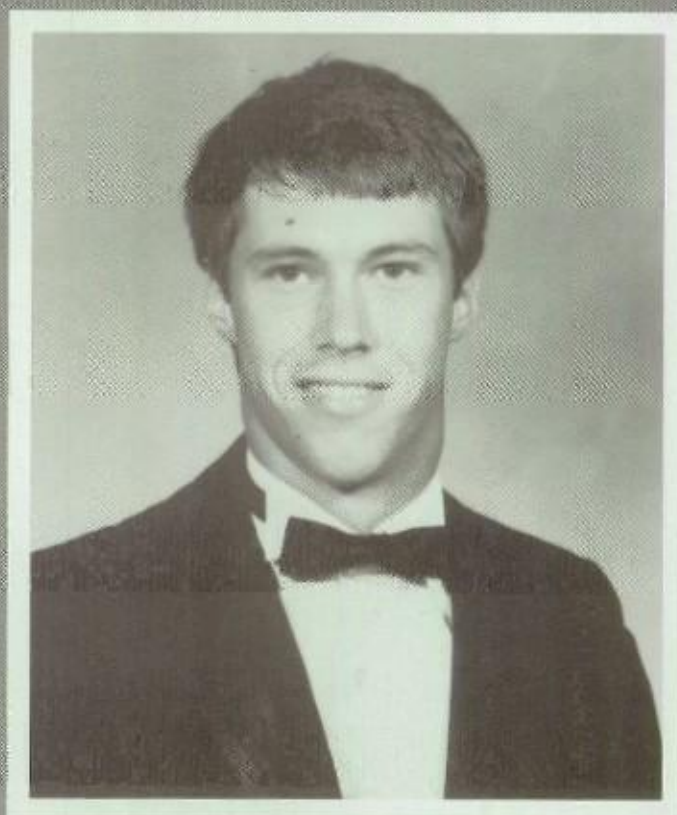

Lou Murrin has been honored with the title which exemplifies the qualities all students seek to attain. She has shown her dedication to Heights through participation in various extracurricular activities while maintaining high academic standards. Among the numerous organizations in which Lou has participated and held offices in are Student Council, National Honor Society, and Senior Steering Committee. She was a member of the French Club, Spirit of the Hill, and served as Co-editor of the Yellow Jacket.

WHO'S WHO 1985

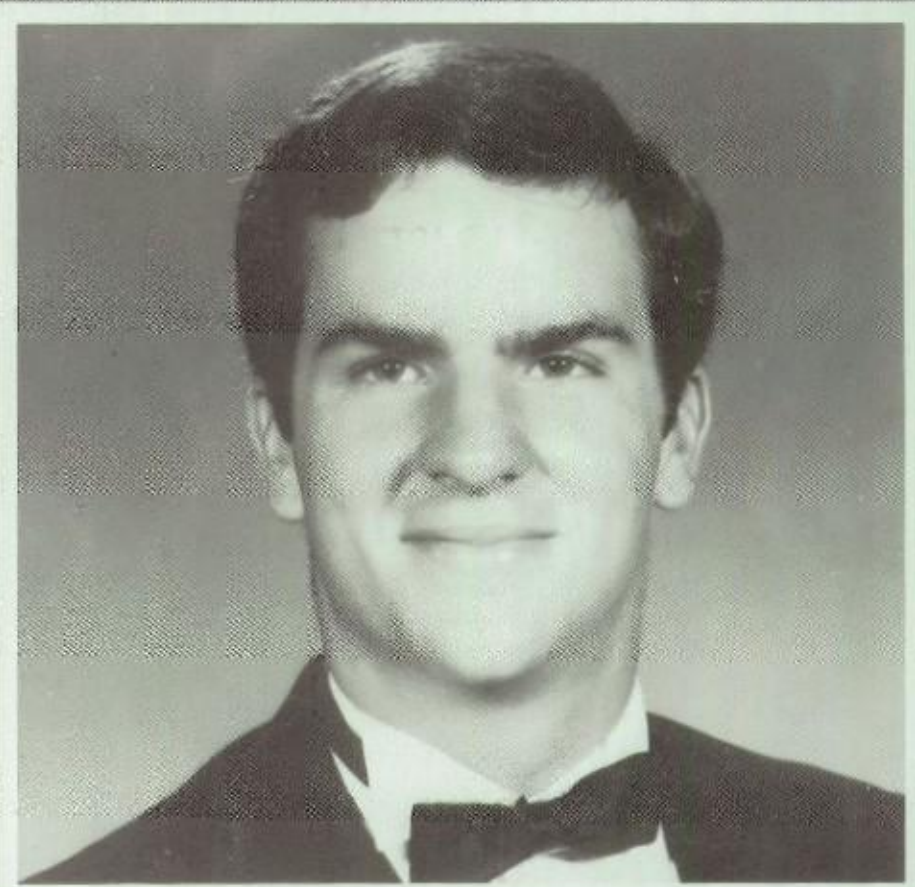

Who's Who is composed of twelve top senior students. Each was nominated according to their standing in the class and elected by the faculty on the basis of outstanding grades, citizenship, and service to the school.

Requirements for qualification include having no grades averaging below 70 and an "E" citizenship average with no "N's." These students must also have attended Heights all of the junior year and the fall semester of their senior year.

ALEXIS ANDER

Alexis's interests have varied greatly through the years. As a sophomore, she was a junior varsity cheerleader. Alexis also served as Student Council Representative for three years and participated on Spirit of the Hill during her junior year. Golf has been a major interest for Alexis, and she played on the Heights golf team. Regardless of the numerous school activities, Alexis found time to devote to two volunteer programs — The United Way Volunteer Program and the Allied Youth Peer Pressure Group.

BEN BARLOW

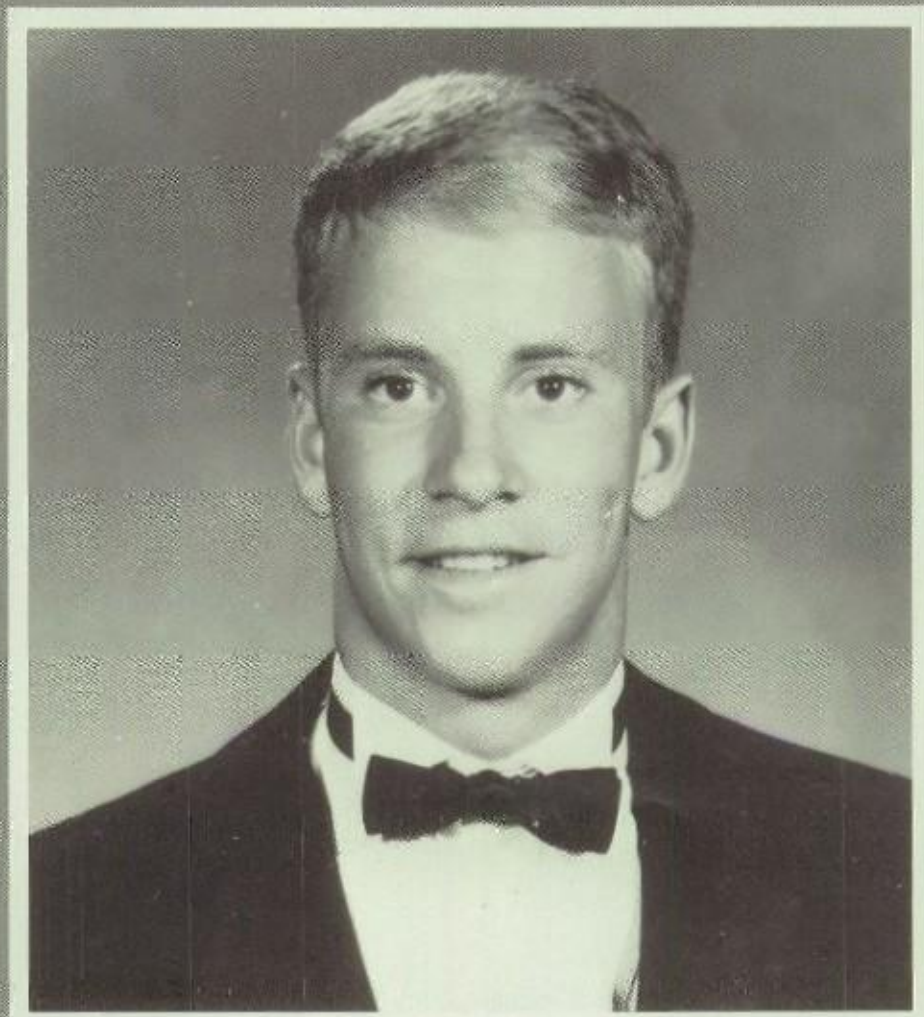

Ben is currently serving as Senior Class President and is a member of the Senior Steering Committee. Besides his work in student government, Ben has been a member of the varsity football, basketball, and track teams during his years at Heights. Ben is among the few students who attained the academic achievement of a straight A average. Having maintained a 4.0 GPA, Ben has deservedly been awarded the Tandy Scholar and SCONA Awards. Other organizations of which Ben has been a member are Spirit of the Hill, and the Art and Spanish Clubs.

WHO'S WHO 1985

CARLA BRUMLEY

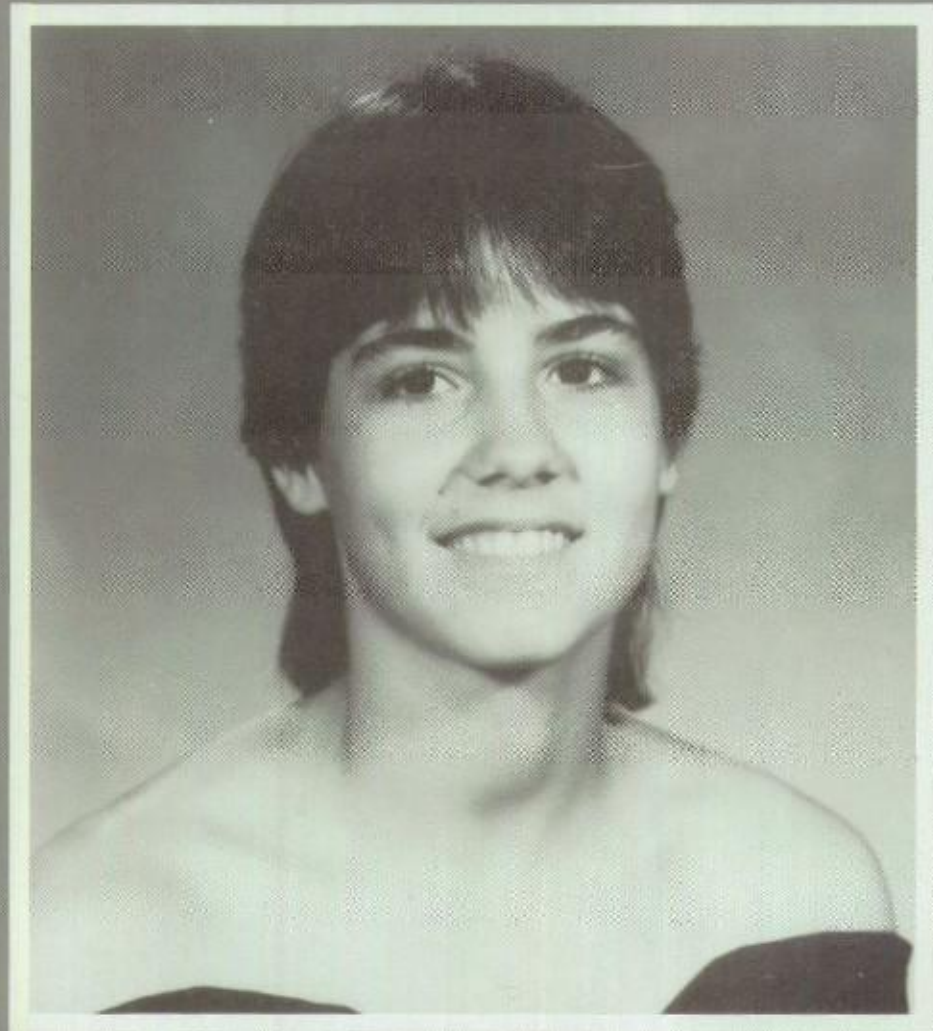

Carla is recognized throughout the school for her Yellow Jacket spirit and dedication. She has been selected as the 1985 Homecoming Queen by the student Body, and is a Senior Favorite Runner-up. Carla has zealously supported Heights this year as a Varsity Cheerleader. She has also held positions as a Varsity Songleader and Spirit of the Hill member. This year, Carla is active in both the Student Council and the Senior Steering Committee. Carla was inducted to the National Honor Society her sophomore year, and is currently an honor student at Heights.

ERIC EWING

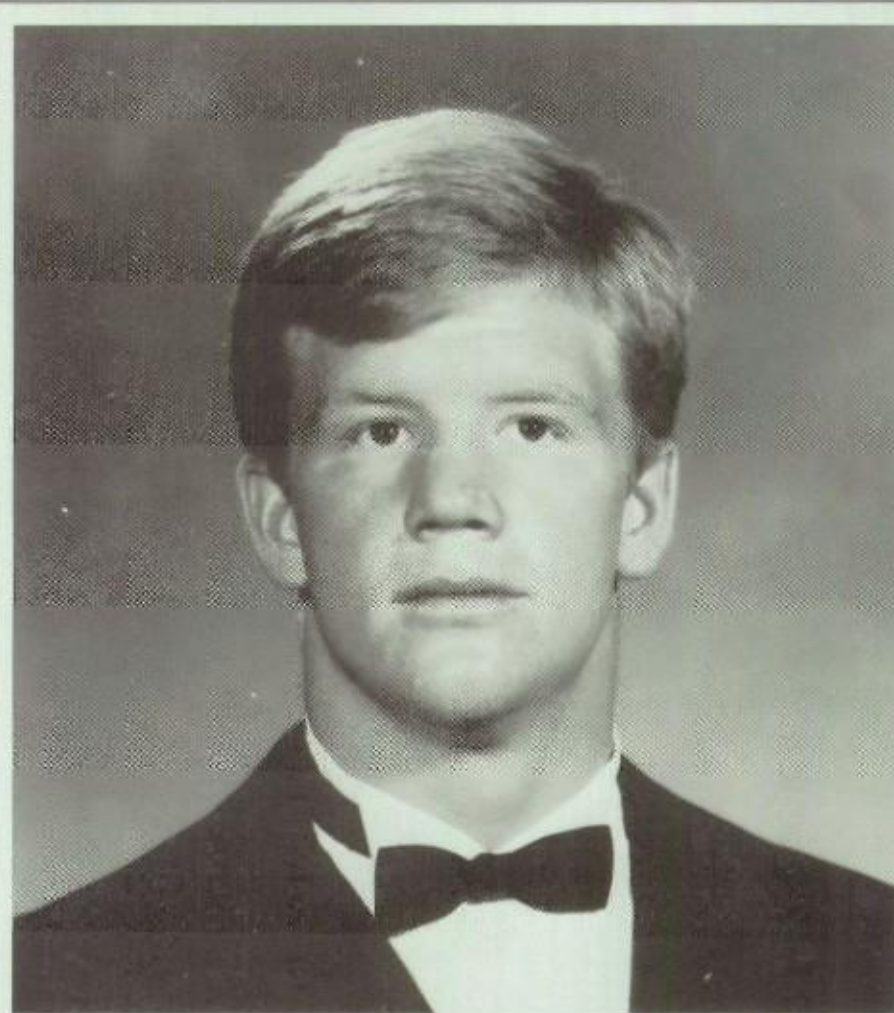

Eric has proven his dedication to Arlington Heights through his involvement in numerous activities. He has lettered in tennis, and has participated in both the French Club and the Latin Club. He is a two year member of the Yellow Jacket Staff, and represents the Class of 1985 on the Student Council. Eric serves as Treasurer of the Senior Class, and is an important member of the Senior Steering Committee. Also, Eric has been a charter member of the Nouvelle Cuisine reigning Senior Howdy King.

RENAE ENOS

Many honors have been bestowed upon Renae during her years at Heights. She has received the Hugh O'Brien and "I Dare You" Leadership Awards, the DAR Award, and several Ann Brannon awards for outstanding achievement. She is Associate Editor of the Jacket Journal, and Co-Editor of Potpourri. She has been active in the Drill Team, The Chess Club, and the Key Club, and is a three year member of the National Honor Society. Renae has maintained a 4.0 for all four years at Heights and serves on the Senior Steering Committee.

STEVEN GAUNTT

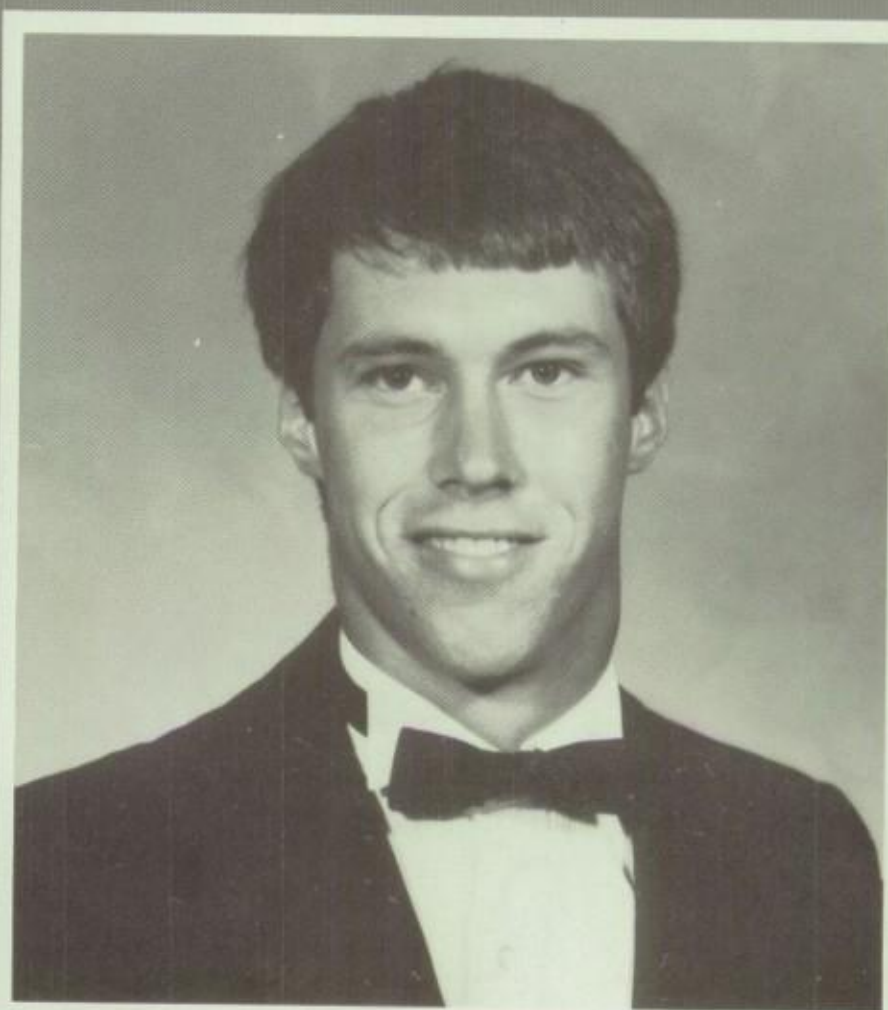

Steve Gauntt has been one of the great contributors to Arlington Heights. He has excelled in two Varsity sports, baseball and football, while maintaining his position as secretary of the National Honor Society. Steve has served extensively on the student Council, of which he is currently President. As junior, he served as Student Council Vice-President, and was president of his sophomore class. Steve was selected this year as the young man who best represents the ideals of Heights, Mr. A.H.H.S.

WHO'S WHO 1985

LUTHERIA HARRISON

Lutheria's talents as a journalist have been exemplified through her work as sports editor for the Jacket Journal and her work with the Yellow Jacket and Potpourri magazine. During her sophomore and junior years, Lutheria was the school mascot and was the recipient of the Altrusa Award her junior year. This year Lutheria's activities have included active membership in the Spirit of the Hill and Youth-in-Government. She also served on the Senior Steering Committee. Lutheria was also elected to the Homecoming Court.

TIM MAUSER

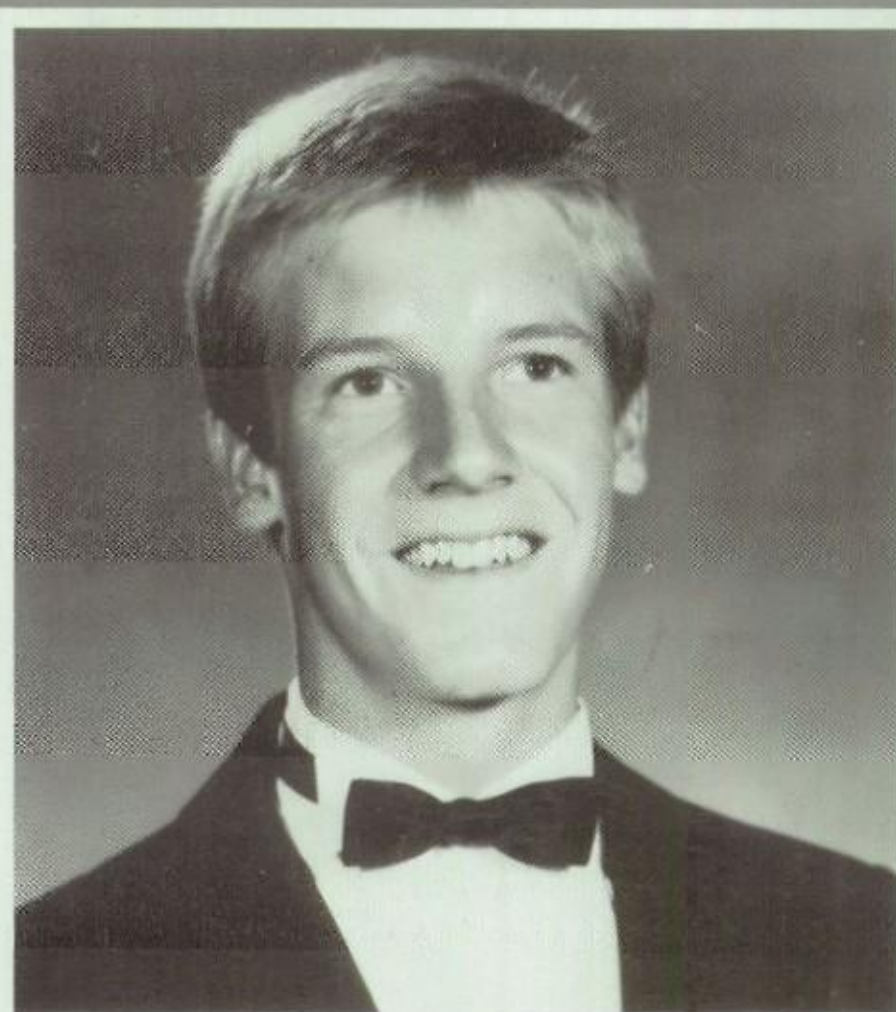

Tim's contributions to Heights have been numerous. He has excelled both academically and athletically. In addition to serving as treasurer for the National Honor Society, Tim also participated actively on the Senior Steering Committee. His outstanding plays as quarterback and pitcher for our varsity teams have boosted school morale for the past three years. Tim was also a member of the Spirit of the Hill and French and Math Clubs. Tim, better known as #25, was elected as a class favorite for two years and as a finalist this year.

WHO'S WHO 1985

LORENA LOPEZ

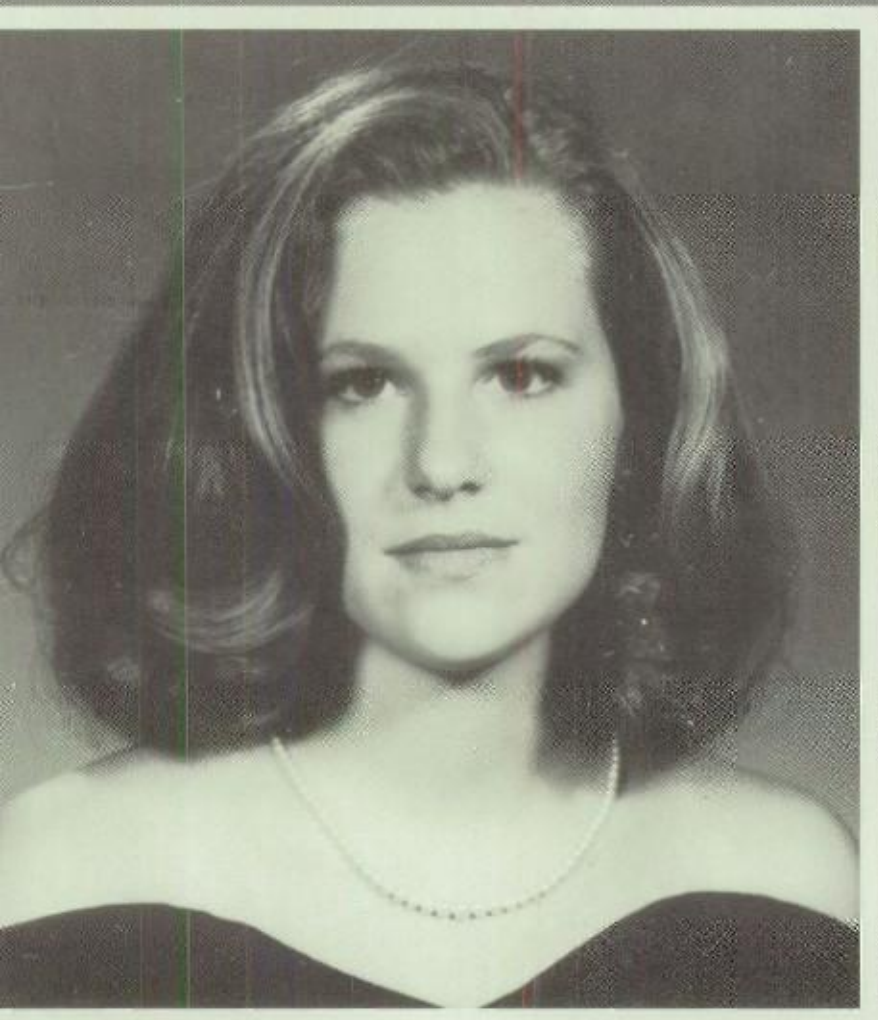

Lorena Lopez has excelled in many activities at Heights, particularly in the area of publications. She is presently Co-Editor of the Yellow Jacket, and has worked on the Jacket Journal. She is a three-year member of the National Honor Society, and represents the Senior Class on the Student Council, and has served the community through her involvement with the Future Homemakers of America. She has also participated in both French and Latin Clubs, and the Key Club.

TODD RAPP

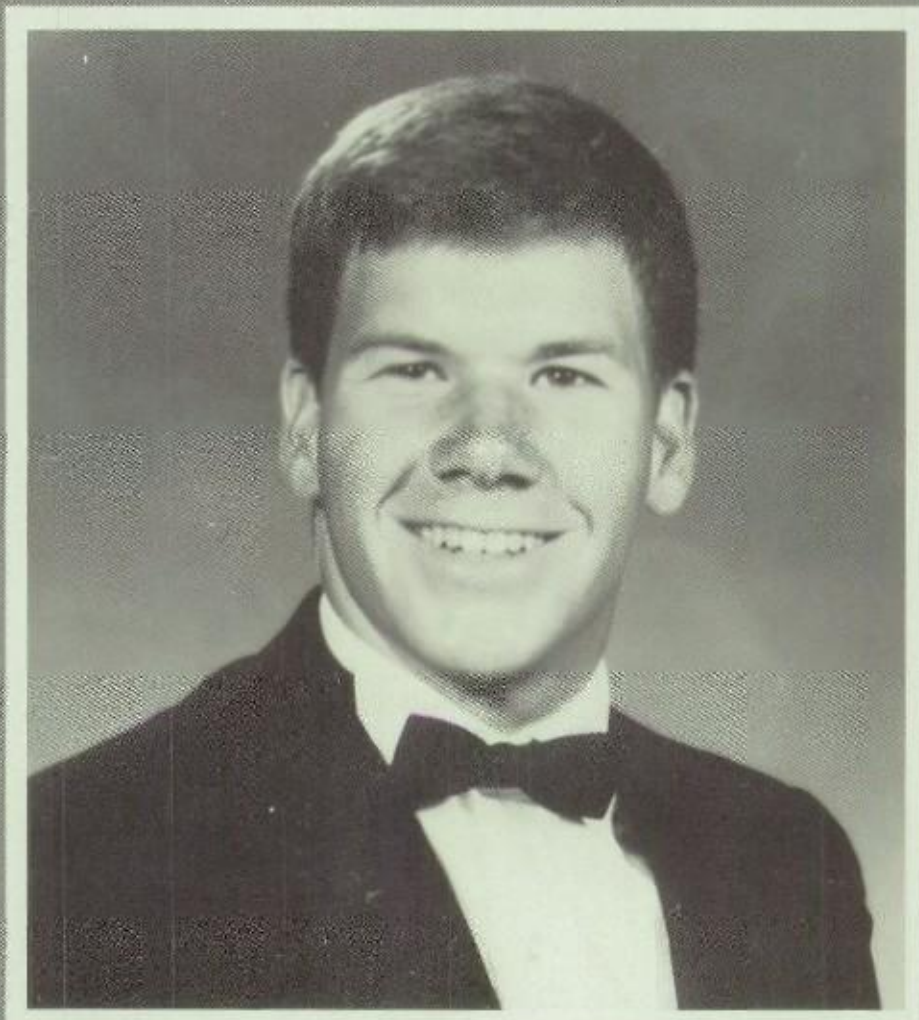

Todd Rapp has become a significant athletic figure on the courts, playing on both the Varsity Basketball and Varsity Tennis teams. He is secretary of the Senior Class, and serves as a chief figure on the Senior Steering Committee. Todd belongs to the National Honor Society, and participates in the Latin Club. He was selected to serve on the Yellow Jacket Staff, and is involved with the Nouvelle Cuisine Council.

WHO'S WHO 1985

LOU MURRIN

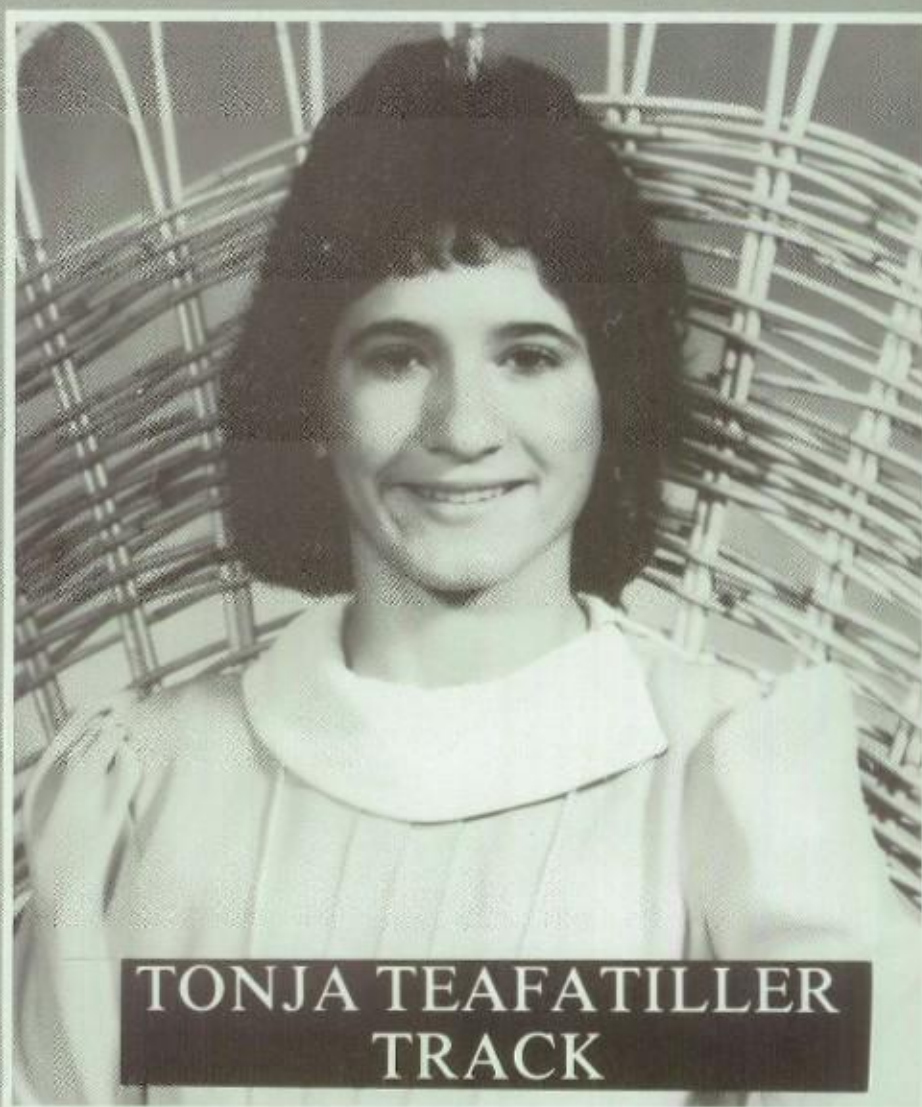

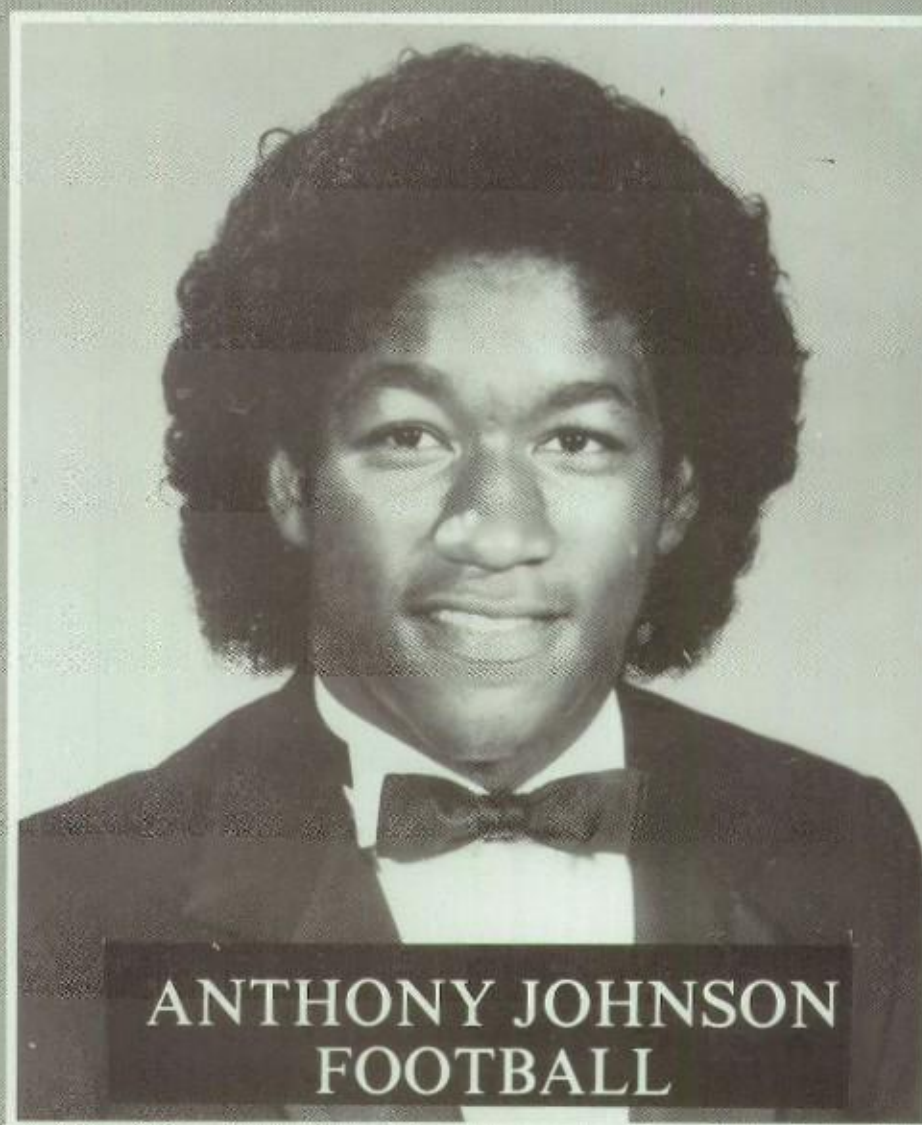

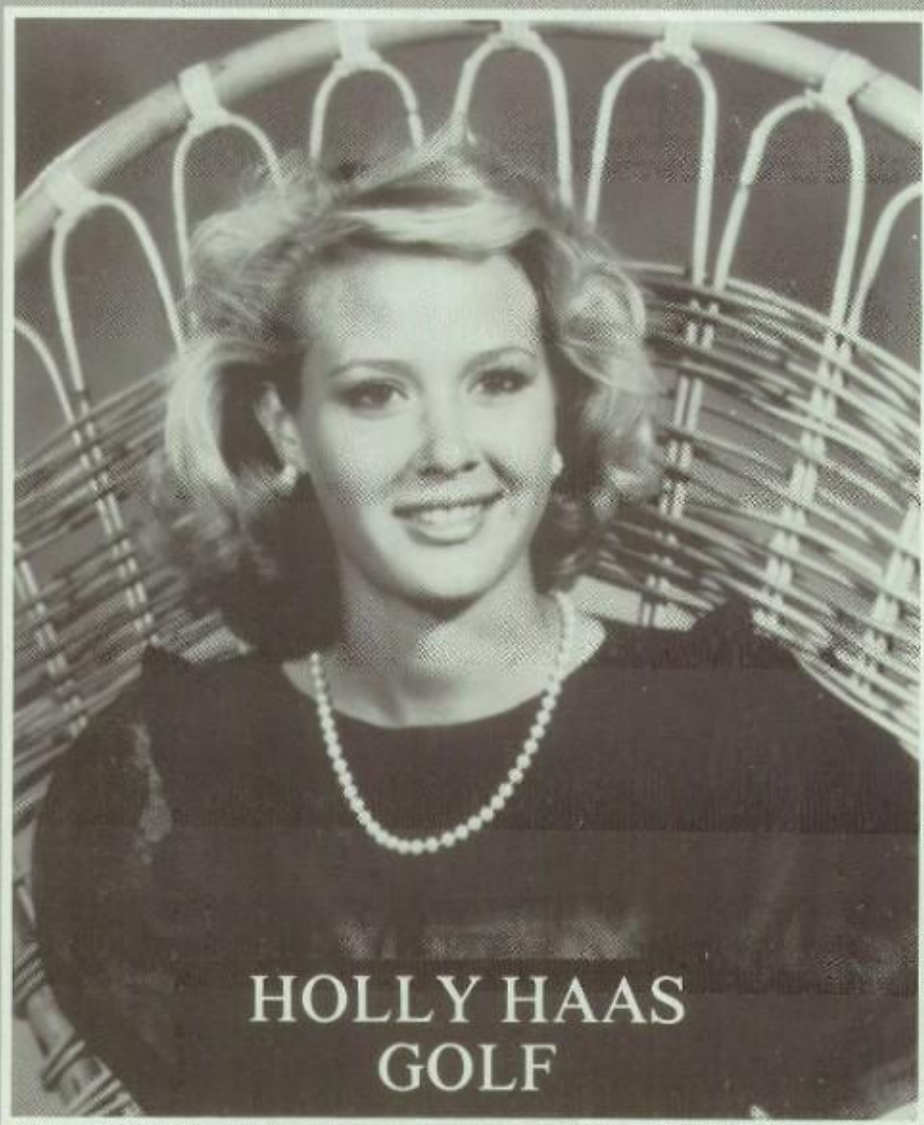

This year Lou was bestowed with the highest honor the school has to offer. Lou was elected Miss A.H.H.S. She has been involved in student government since her freshman year. Lou was president of her freshman class and junior class secretary. She served as handbook chairman for the Student Council and is currently its secretary. Lou is also president of the French Club and vice-president of the National Honor Society. She played varsity soccer and has been a member of Spirit of the Hill. Lou is presently co-editor of the Yellow Jacket.

WILSON STONE

Will is best known for his achievements in diving. He is All-American having been district champion, regional medalist, and state finalist for the past four years. An active and dedicated student, Will is currently President of the National Honor Society and Vice-President of the Senior Class. Will has been elected Chairman for the Student Council for three years. Will was also president of his junior class. He has been a member of the Latin Club and Spirit of the Hill. This year Will was elected as finalist for Mr. A.H.H.S.

STUDENT LIFE

Howdy Week Introduces Fish to Life on the Hill

Howdy Week turned out to be a great success once again for students on the hill. During the week, there were many activities planned for the Heights student body.

The week started off with rollerskating at Silver Wheel and Young Life. Powder Puff football, Tacky-Day, and the announcement of Howdy King and Queen at the school's patio pep rally led the events through Friday afternoon. The Varsity football game and dance, which was held on the patio, ended the week's festivities.

Howdy Week was a time to expose the Freshmen to the school and to acquaint them with the upperclassmen on the hill through various activities. It also gave them a chance to see what will happen during their future years at Heights.

Working towards perfection, the "foxy" senior guys attempt to show their cheerleading abilities for the last time.

Seniors Eric Ewing and Rose Mary Alvarez enjoy their last year as Howdy King and Queen on the hill.

Junior Howdy King and Queen, Scott Butler and Cecilia Alvarez, are placed on the throne at Heights.

Freshmen A. J. Summers and Bonnie Blossman display their joy as Howdy King and Queen.

At the freshman skit, Bart Thornton, Krissy Pedigo and Missy Flowers exhibit student life at Heights.

Becky Dry and Laura Roels support their team members as they annihilate the Juniors.

Freshmen "tango" at their first Howdy Dance on the hill.

By his obvious facial expression, Steve Guantt coaches the Senior girls.

"All the Senior guys are so fine!" exclaim Raney Richards, Melissa Pulido, and Rachel Meyer.

Robby Sager flashes a smile to a senior girl while skating at Silver Wheel.

Junior quarterback, Lisa Robertson, draws back for a pass while cringing in fear of an oncoming senior girl.

Open House Welcomes Jacket Parents to the Hill

On Monday October 15 the Arlington Heights PTC had their annual Open House. This gave parents a chance to meet and discuss their child's progress. A bake sale was held in the library with the goodies provided by members of the PTC. The German Club provided visitors a taste of German cuisine. Second year chemistry students gave a demonstration in the chemistry lab. Mr. Foster, counselor, announced the commendations for National Merit Scholarships. A meeting of PTC members was held in the auditorium, and was presided over by Mrs. Gretchen Denny. The new faculty members were introduced by Mrs. Frances Alles, principal.

Mrs. Alles welcomes parents to Arlington Heights annual Open House.

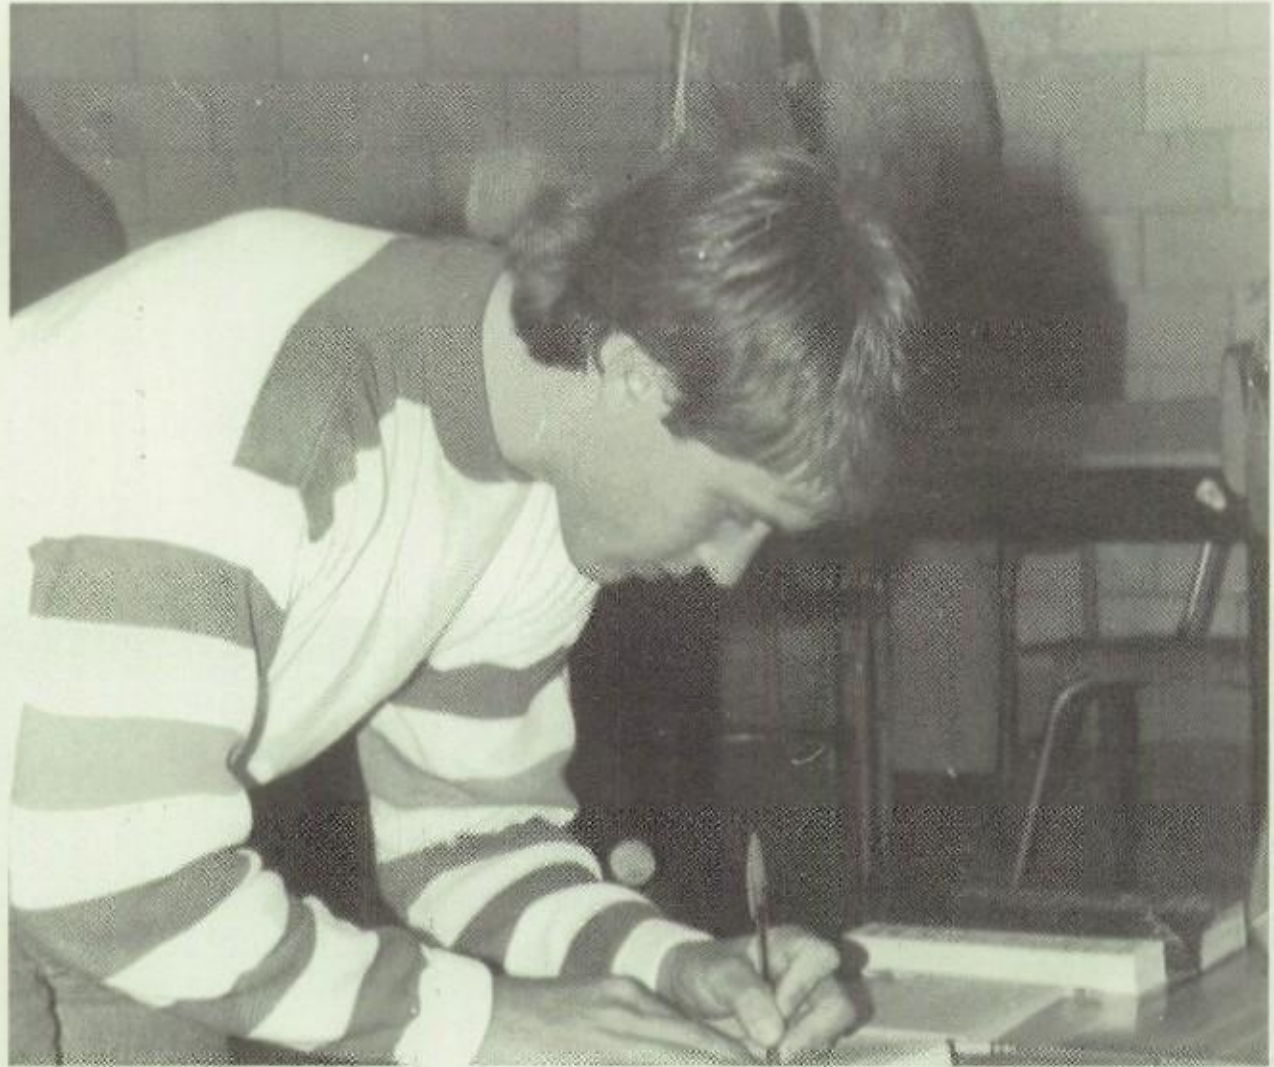

Mr. Van Meter helps a parent find her way at Open House.

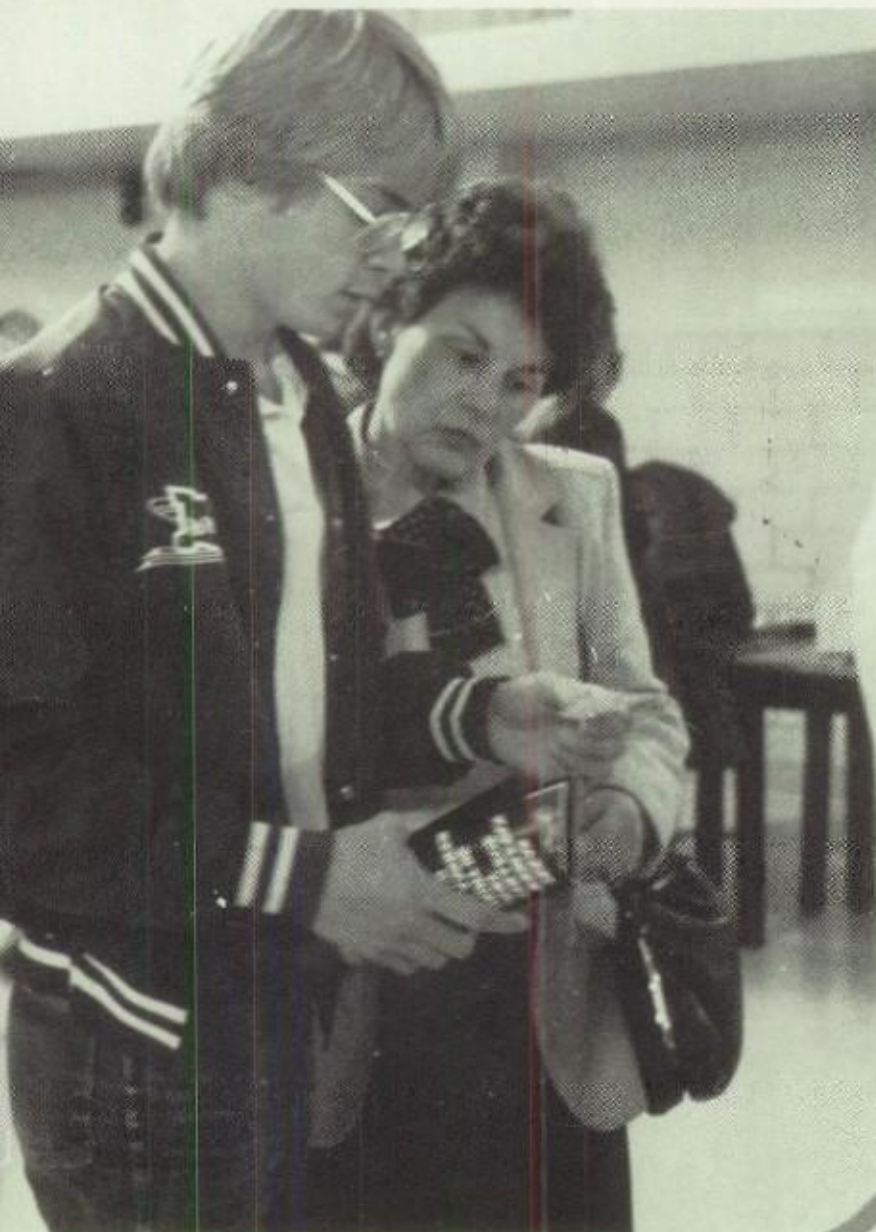

Mrs. Terry Shaw visits with Mr. Tate at parent's night.

College Night at Heights Informs Eager Students

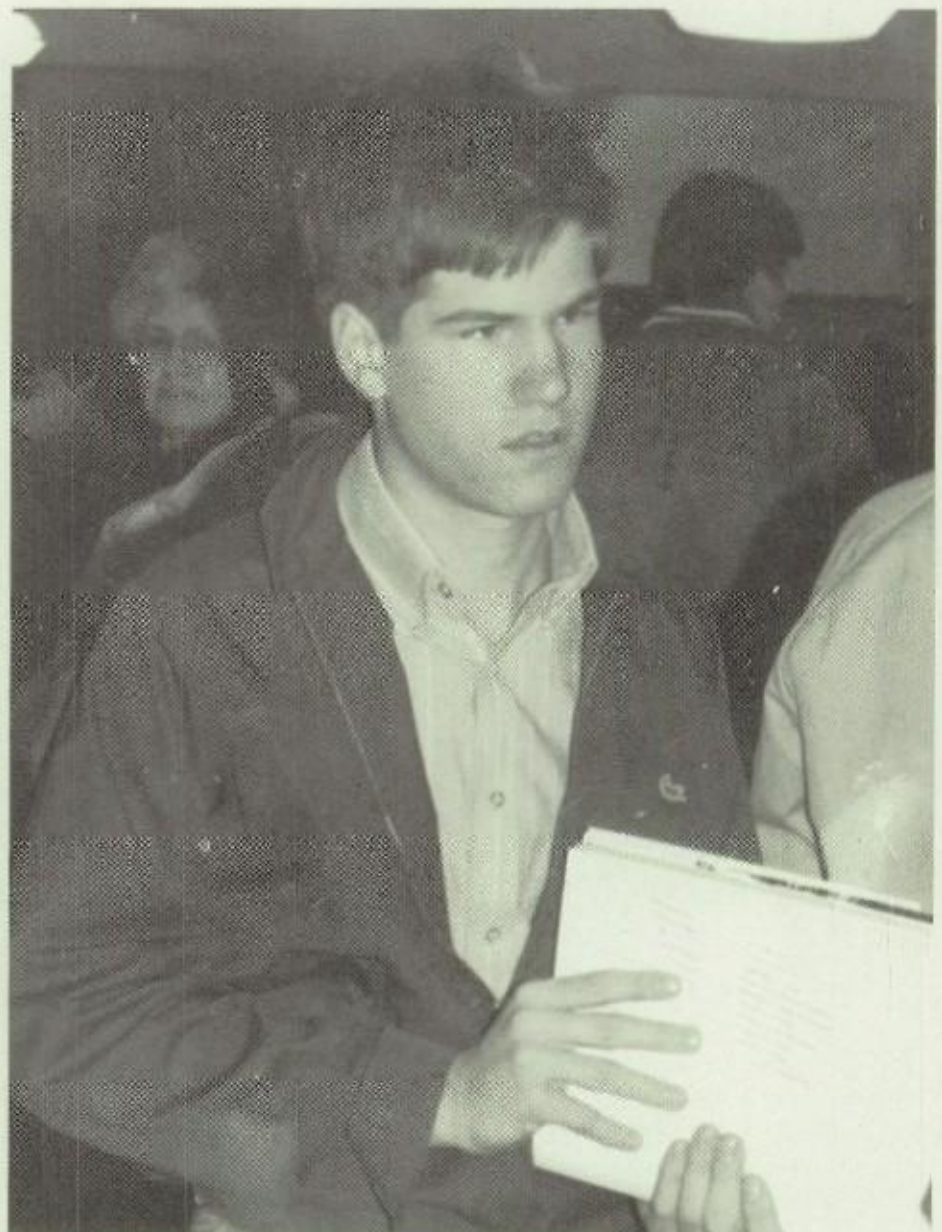

On Monday night, December 1, Arlington Heights College Night was held in the school cafeteria. Representatives from colleges all over the nation informed eager students about admission requirements, tuition costs, housing, and financial aid. With help from college representatives and their parents, many students were able to decide on more specific colleges they would like to attend. College Night was very successful. The representatives were complimentary of the interest shown in the students and their parents," stated Sara Brian, guidance counselor. Some colleges represented were Texas Christian University, Baylor University, Rice University, and Texas Tech University.

Cliff Zachry sends for brochures from Vanderbilt and Texas Tech Universities.

Chris Gensheimer and his mom contemplate the thought of attending the University of Texas.

Hank Demond listens intently to a representative from TCU.

Homecoming '84 Brings Spirit and Pride to AHHS

Homecoming '84 began with the traditional decorating of the patio. Each class made a float from the theme "Spirit Through Animation." The junior class won the float contest with "The Bedrock Bowl."

The Homecoming pep rally was a highlight of the day's events. It contained a slide show, produced by Will Stone, Jim Odom and Martin Puente, the announcing of the homecoming court, and a dance performed by the senior girls.

This year homecoming was full of surprises. For the first time the Homecoming Queen was announced at halftime instead of during the pep rally. The Homecoming Court was also escorted on the field in "Texas Taxi Cabs." This year's Homecoming Queen, Carla Brumley, had the honor of driving around in the first limousine with her father, Jon Brumley, after being crowned '84 Homecoming Queen.

To the crowd's pleasure the Jackets beat Trimble Tech 36-20. After the game the victory was celebrated at the Metro Center Hotel with music from "Circuit."

Anticipation of a ride in a "Texas Taxi Cab" brings smiles to the faces of the 1984 Homecoming Court.

The Junior's "Bedrock Bowl" displays spirit to beat the Bulldogs.

Surprise! The 1984 Homecoming Queen is Carla Brumley.

Carla takes a victory ride around the stadium with the Coming Home Queen, Stephanie Reynolds.

Being pleased by Carla's win, Jill Needham, Sherri Uecker, and Annette Mann congratulate the new Queen.

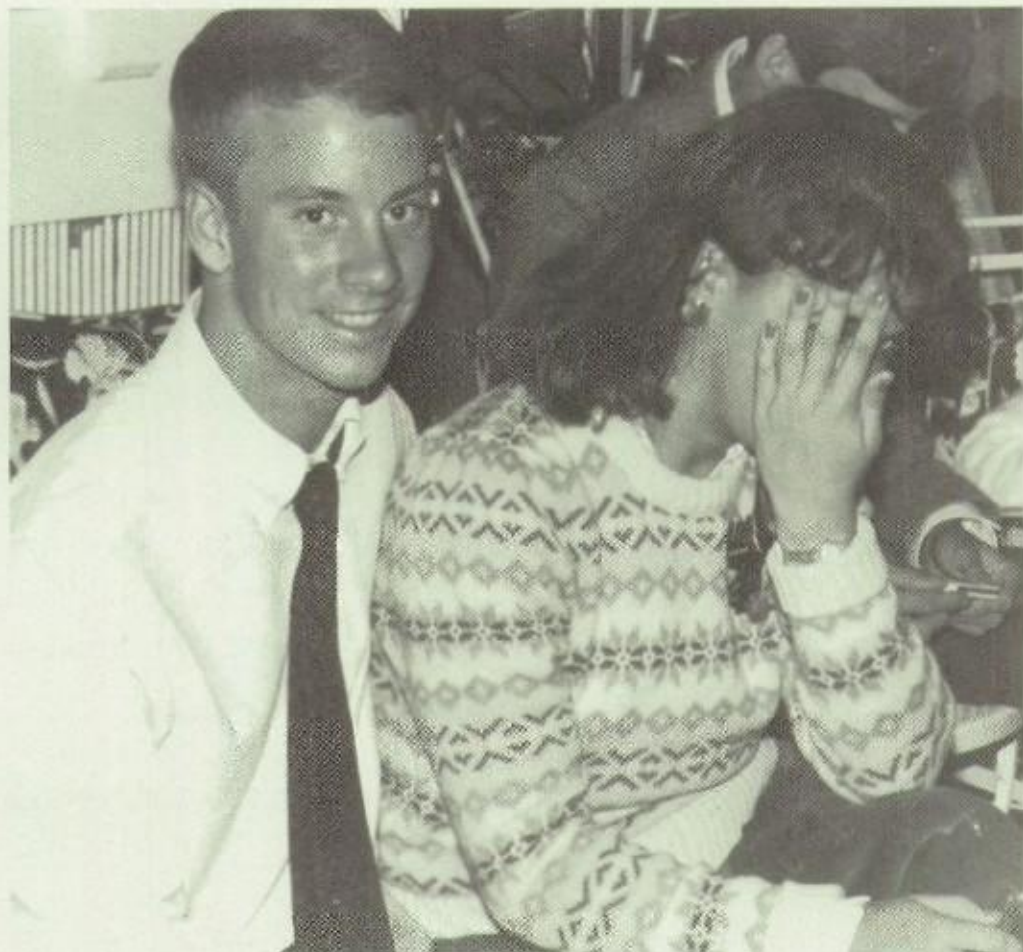

Troy LaVergne serenades his date, Patty Worrell, at the Homecoming dance.

The Senior Float predicts "The Cape Crusaders" to run over the Bulldogs.

Ed West and Anthony Chaumont root the Yellow Jackets on to another victory.

Alexis Wilson attempts to mask her identity as her parents approach.

Junior, Bert Ising, portrays his devotion to his class by participating in the "Bedrock Bowl" float.

Suzanne McGown, donned in toga apparel, presents the senior girls for the annual senior girls dance.

1984 Fall Production Adds Culture to Heights

The performing arts students presented "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" as the fall drama production this year. In the play Cornelia, doublecast with Patty Worrell and Vicki Evans, and her best friend Emily, played by Cindy Curtis, embark on a summer vacation to Paris. They find themselves in many humorous predicaments, such as trying to get rid of the bags, given to them by their parents, which they were supposed to keep with them at all times. Emily believes she has killed someone and becomes paranoid that everyone is out to get her. Then, they find they must fight off bed bugs in the Paris hotels. Even so, they enjoy the trip and are sorry to go home.

The other cast members included Seniors, John Williams and Stacy Clinton as Mr. and Mrs. Otis Skinner. Steve Shults and Troy LaVergne, both juniors, portrayed Dick Winters and Leo McEvoy, respectively. Monsieur De La Croix was played by Steven Rolls, also a junior.

Mrs. Rosemary Burton was in charge of the stage direction and Mrs. Mary Parham was the program director. The play was presented at 7:30 p.m. on November 14th and again on the evening of November 16th. This was the first year the production was given only at night.

"What is this?" asks Patty Worrell.

Candy Trout gives Mary Smith a somewhat disgusted look as she thinks, "That wasn't supposed to be in the script."

Vicki Evans, who portrays Cornelia Skinner, demonstrates her versatile acting ability to the audience Friday night.

the Skinners, Stacy Clinton and John Williams, discuss the pros and cons of letting their daughter go to Paris.

"Not again!" exclaims a frustrated Cindy Curtis as she and Patty Worrell are told to do the scene one more time.

As Patty Worrell and Kristen Zetsche look on, Cindy Curtis displays her tap-dancing skill to Troy LaVergne and Danny Oge.

“Godspell” Proves to be Spellbinding Production

“Godspell” was the musical production presented this spring by the performing arts students at Arlington Heights. Mrs. Rosemary Burton, the drama director, and Mrs. Donna Norton, the musical director, collaborated to make the show a success. Mrs. Mary Parham was in charge of designing the programs. The leading roles of Stephen and Jesus were both portrayed by Troy LaVergne, junior. John Williams, senior, played the other main roles of David, John the Baptist, and Judas. The casting for the other characters changed for each of the parables that comprise “Godspell.” The musical was presented in two performances given at seven-thirty on the evenings of May eighth and ninth.

Julie Rose uses her wiles to lure Ivan Stober away from Mary Alice Jones.

Vickie Evans and Robin Huston accuse an unconcerned Julie Rose of some chronic wrongdoing while Samantha Medlock, Kristina Cleveland, and Troy LaVergne look on.

“Wait a minute! I don’t get this!” exclaims John Williams as he rehearses with Kristen Shrove and Kristina Cleveland.

On December 14th the Arlington Heights Student Council sponsored the annual Christmas Dance. It was held in the old gym which was decorated in an array of red and green. The music was created by the popular band, "King Cobra". For a change from the normal routine, the girls asked the boys. The semi-formal dresses and the sharply dressed young men transformed the old gym into a colorful, enchanting wonderland. The holiday spirit was contagious, and everyone enjoyed a fun-filled evening celebrating the Christmas season.

Enjoying the festivities and the holiday spirit, Malinda Silman and her partner, Barry Johnson, dance to the sound of "King Cobra".

Senior Luau Proves to be a Smashing Success

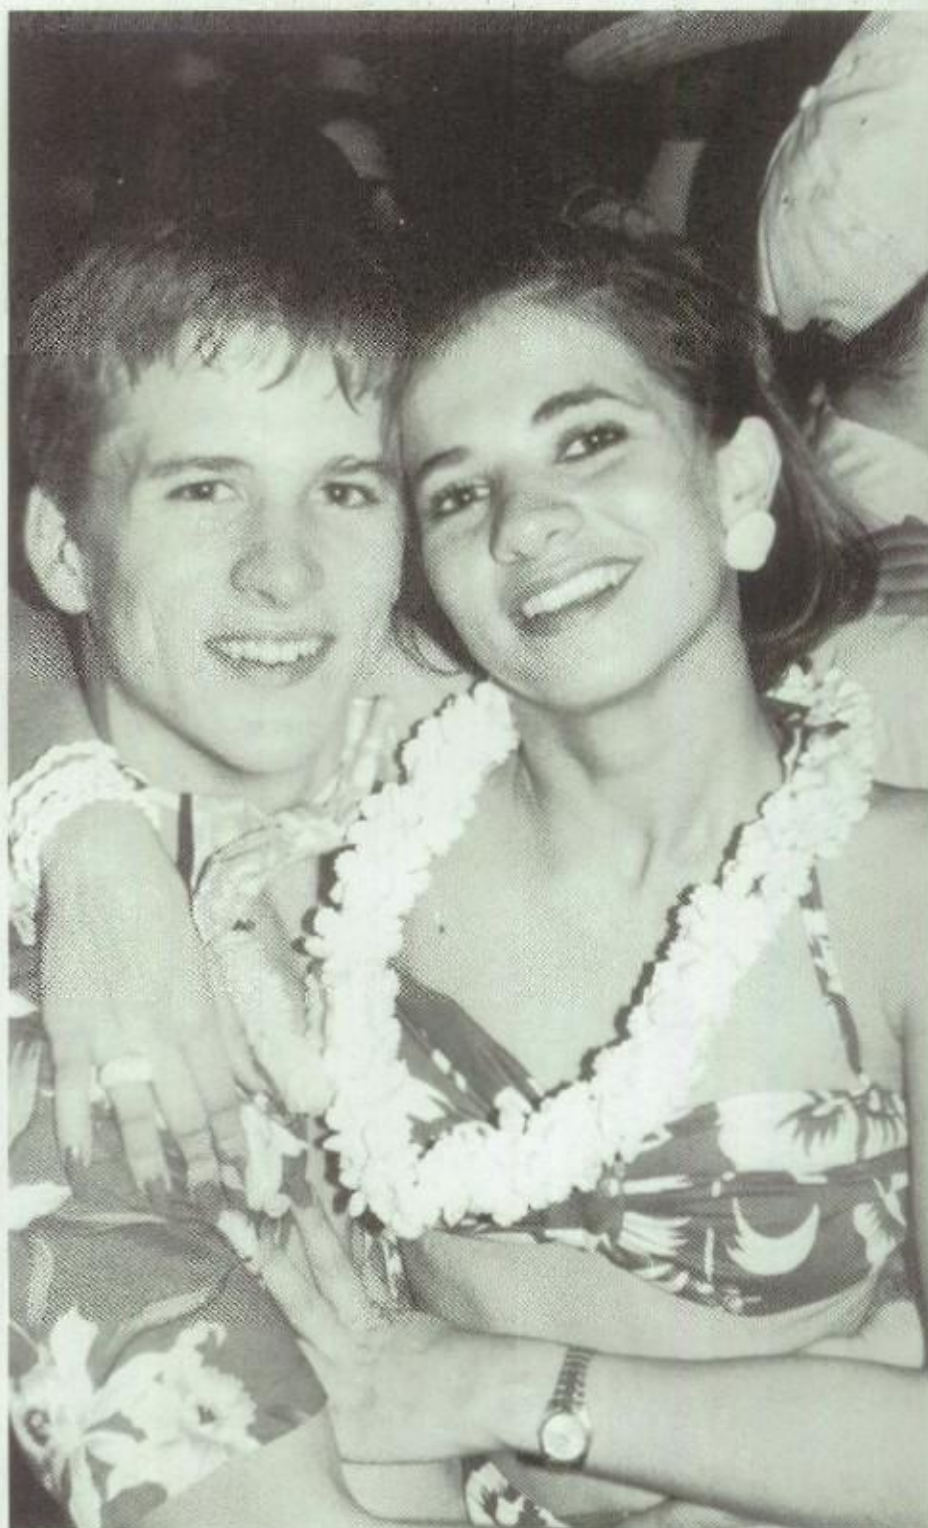

This January, Heightsters were given a break from the extreme cold winter, and were treated to the tropical climate of the fourth annual Senior Luau. Students came arrayed in various Hawaiian attire, as the Penguins played for a record-breaking crowd. The crowd was dazzled by the brilliantly decorated gym which included palm trees, bamboo huts, a bridge built over water, and other assorted items. The Luau was sponsored by the Senior Steering Committee.

Student Council Motivates Success on the Hill

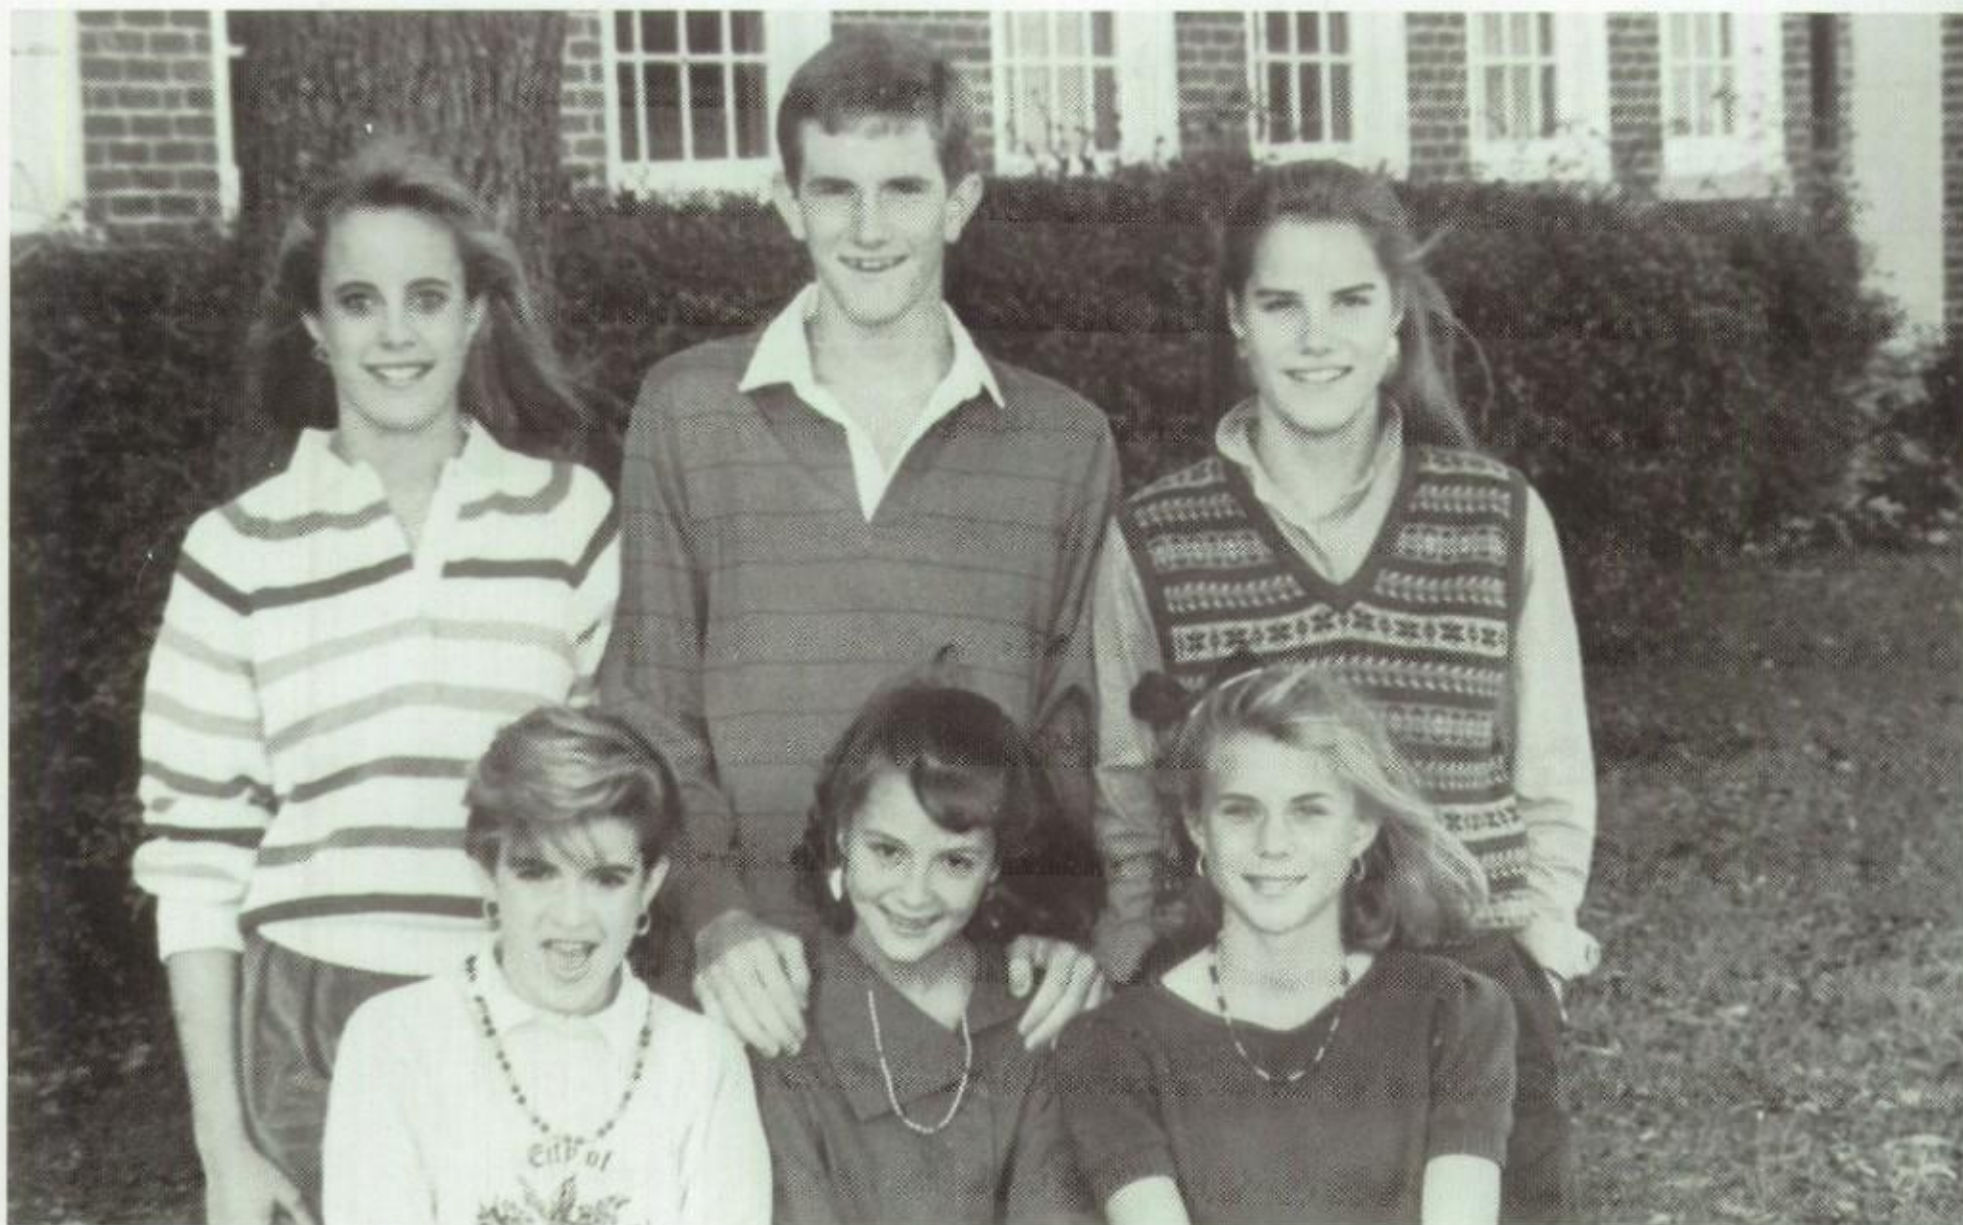

Steve Gauntt demonstrates his skills as Student Body President.

This year the AHHS Student Council planned and organized their way to one of the most successful years the Hill has ever seen. Led by officers Steve Gauntt, President; Dennis Abbott, Vice-President; Lou Murrin, Secretary; Krissy Pedigo, Treasurer; and Will Stone, Parliamentarian, the Student Council strived for student participation and unity at Heights. Under the supervision of Mrs. Jacquelyn Curry, Howdy Week, Homecoming, the Christmas Dance, and Spring Fever Week were a huge success. Each council member was placed on one of the four new committees: Scrapbook, Elections and Constitution, Public Relations and Evaluation, and School Spirit and Programs. Elections were held in the spring.

Student Council Committee Heads: Shelley Bourke, Scrapbook; Will Stone, Elections and Constitution; Alexis Wilson, Public Relations and Evaluation; and Arden Gafford, School Spirit and Program.

Junior Class Representatives: Arden Gafford, Shelley Bourke, Missy Flowers, Bart Thornton, Karen Fox, and Michele Alread.

Senior Class Representatives: Bret Helmer, Lorena Lopez, Carla Brumley, Eric Ewing, Rose Mary Alvarez, Monica Kirkpatrick, and Will Stone.

NHS Enjoys Finer Aspects of New Grading System

The National Honor Society, a scholastic organization reserved for students of high academic merit, glided through the school year with accustomed style and dignity. Though denied many of its traditional activities NHS members ably adapted to newly imposed rules. Community-minded members were, however, allowed to lead the annual blood drive. Will Stone led the NHS as president. Membership is restricted to juniors and seniors with a 3.5 grade point average and consistently high citizenship.

NHS Sponsors: Mrs. Joan Vinson, Mr. Arch Van Meter, and Mrs. Marilyn Bettes.

SSC Leads Senior Class Through Successful Year

1985 Senior Class Sponsors: Mrs. Marilyn Bettes and Mrs. Linda Szot.

The Senior Steering Committee guided the 1985 senior class through the year with an uncommonly graceful leadership. Through hard work and tenacity during the occasional cross-currents, the committee achieved even more than it had anticipated. Records for magazine sales were set, the senior Luau was a smashing success, and the band found its way to the Prom. The rightfully pleased officers were as follows: Ben Barlow, President; Will Stone, Vice-President; Todd Rapp, Secretary; and Eric Ewing, Treasurer.

Jacket Journal Reports Activities on the Hill

This year's Jacket Journal staff was headed by associate editor Renae Enos and Monty Phillips, editor. This eight-member staff worked diligently all year to keep this year's paper one of the top ten high school newspapers.

Mrs. Gene Thompson, sponsor, acted as proofreader, making sure of correct journalism style before sending the stories to the printers. Due to her expert instructions, the Jacket Journal earned the Five Star All American award. This award means that of about eight schools in the southwest region, the Jacket Journal was chosen to represent this region as one of the best high school newspapers.

"I think that the staff has put out exceptional papers considering that we did not have as many members as in past years," commented Renae Enos.

Yellow Jacket Staff Publishes 52nd Volume

The Yellow Jacket Staff captured each facet of the 84-85 school year, culminating in the 52nd volume of the Arlington Heights Yellow Jacket. Guided by second year sponsor, Jacquelyn Curry, the staff succeeded in producing an excellent book. The burden and responsibilities of editor fell into the capable hands of Lou Murrin and Lorena Lopez.

Second year staffers Eric Ewing, Chris Kibbie, Will Stone, and Sherri Uecker served as section editors in charge of People, Sports, Organizations, and Student Life respectively. Martin Puente and Jim Odom worked as Photographers and Darkroom Technicians. The Staff worked together meeting deadlines, cropping pictures, and writing captions to continue the tradition of excellence exemplified in the '85 Yellow Jacket.

A Reorganized SOH Promotes Spirit at Heights

This year was a new beginning for Arlington Heights Spirit of the Hill. After revising the SOH Constitution, a new group was formed. This year, anyone who met the grade requirements was eligible to join. The sponsors for the new Spirit of the Hill were Mrs. Jane Routon, a transitional teacher, and Coach Johnny Nabors, a G.P.S. teacher.

Spirit leaders were elected for each grade. Each was responsible for informing their group of the games they were to attend. There were Spirit of the Hill members assigned to all sports events. Members were required to attend four out of five assigned activities a month. Pins, to be worn on uniforms, were given to members with outstanding attendance.

There were new uniforms this year, also. They consisted of white shirts with an "AHHS" and Yellow Jacket emblem on the back for boys and girls. The girls wore blue skirts with white bobby-socks and white tennis shoes. This was a new and exciting year for Spirit of the Hill.

Whiz Quiz Members Show Their Trivia Talent

Trivia has become the newest American pastime. One fun way Heights students showed off their trivia talent was by participating in Whiz Quiz. This year's sponsors were the school's librarian, Mrs. Bruns; the French teacher, Mrs. Sivers; and Mrs. Murphy, a resource teacher. Bart Thornton, Junior, led the team consisting of members: Hank Demond, Adam Honeckman, and Steven Mear; all Juniors. The team was defeated in the match against St. Marks at Dallas Baptist College. The Whiz Kids kept up their skills by practicing before and after school twice a week. They participated throughout the year in competitions against the teachers and other area high schools.

Industrial Arts Club Takes Pride in Its Work

Industrial Arts Club Officers: Babette Bogert, Secretary; Lesley Brewer, Vice-President; Genia Davis, Treasurer; and Andy Rhinefort, President.

This year the Industrial Arts Club showed their skill by competing in city, regional, and statewide Industrial Arts Fairs. They traveled from city fairs to regional competition held at Tarleton State University and state competition at the Waco Convention Center.

The club officers this year included President, Andy Rhinefort; Vice-President, Lesley Brewer; Secretary, Babette Bogert; Treasurer, Genia Davis; and Sergeant-at-Arms, Paul Hryekewicz. The club was sponsored by Charles McClure. The Arlington Heights Industrial Arts Club is a member of the Texas Chapter of the American Industrial Arts Association. Between competitions the club enjoyed doing community service projects.

JROTC Prepares for Annual Federal Inspection

Once again the Arlington Heights Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps Battalion, headed by Major Glen Glass and Master Sergeant William Baker, strived for military excellence and strict self-discipline.

Throughout the year the Cadets acted as pallbearers at various funerals and participated in several holiday parades. Also, the Corps worked toward the strict Federal Inspection given by the Reserves at Carswell Air Force Base. They presented the Cadets with two new awards this year, Outstanding Drill Squad and Outstanding Drill Platoon.

To end the year, the JROTC had its annual picnic and Battalion Field Maneuver. They learned to strengthen their maneuvering abilities and had a successful year.

Orchestra Rebuilds With Plans for the Future

Conductor Mr. Paul Smith

There were no savings of strings for the orchestra this year due to a major renovation — that is, the rebuilding for their forthcoming debut in 1985. Due to a loss of some veteran musicians, director Paul Smith decided a new orchestra was in need.

So, this year, budding musicians were trained to play as expertly as their predecessors as Mr. Smith sharpened their skills to a razor's edge. When orchestra members had cultivated their skills, they were put to the test by playing a mini-concert downtown.

Members also treated school officials to a concert in the administration building. Officers for this year, Crystal Davis, president, Clifford Thompson, vice president, Jamie Hammond, secretary, Yvonne Adams, treasurer, and Jill Boles, librarian, all agreed that the new orchestra is on its way to the top.

Flag Corps and Twirler Enliven Halftime Shows

Once again, the halftime shows were enlivened by Renee Austin, twirler and the flag corps.

This is Renee's second year as the AHHS featured twirler. "Working as a part of the band has really given me a sense of self-discipline. I have enjoyed participating in the spirit of the school," exclaims Renee. She participated in the Louisiana Open State Competition, last summer in New Orleans. In the advanced category, Renee placed first out of 50 girls.

The flag corps had an exceptional year twirling the school colors to many popular songs such as Lionel Richie's "Hello."

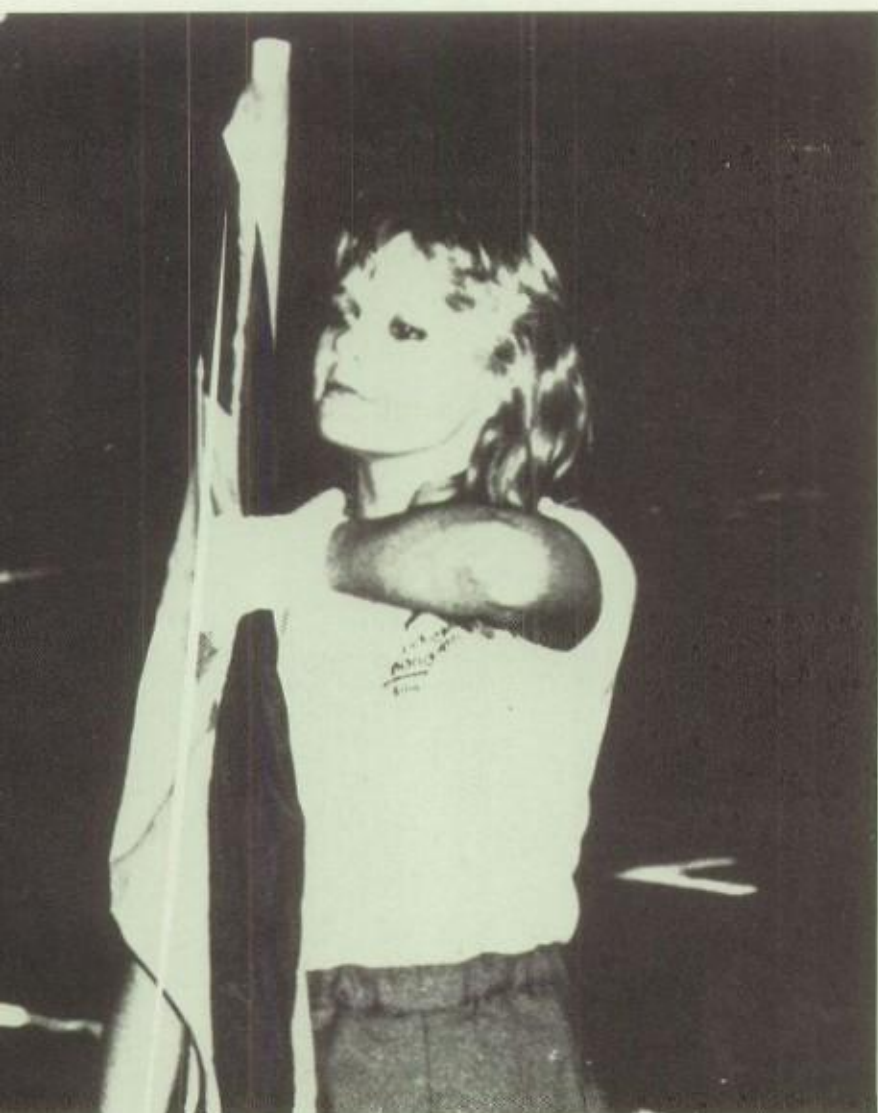

Sponsored by Mrs. Sarah Smith, Twana Brock, junior, served as captain with Tonya Martin, sophomore, as Lt. Capt. "All the girls have done a great job and I'm proud to be a part of such a group. I'm sure we will be just as great next year," adds Twana.

"They're playing our song," thinks Tonya Martin.

1984-85 Heights Band Hailed as "The Best"

The Arlington Heights Band filled the 1984-85 sports season with much enjoyable music. James Rictor, captain; Jill Boles, 1st lieutenant; Shirl Sperry, 2nd lieutenant; and Dee Dee Powell, librarian; headed the roster of officers.

The band participated in such exciting activities as the U.I.L. Marching Competition where they competed against other schools for awards. They also displayed the blue and gold in such parades as the Veterans Day Parade and the Parade of Lights at Christmas time. During Spring Break, the bandsters took a much needed rest and travelled down to Houston to the famed Astrodome to participate in the Astroworld Music Festival.

Director Paul Smith reflected with an air of pride, "This particular band is the most cooperative and easy to get along with that I have had in a long time, and having those qualities brings out the best."

The AHHS Choir Appears in Top Form This Year

The Arlington Heights Choir had a successful and eventful year. The fall semester was spent primarily in preparation for the many programs in the spring. A Christmas program was presented which was filmed and shown on cable. They competed in the Sandy Lake Show Choir Festival once again. Among the many shows and competitions of the spring, the UIL Vocal Solo and Ensemble Contest, High School City Choral Contest, All City Honor Chorus Audition, and All City Honor Chorus Scholarship Audition were just a few.

Mrs. Norton was very pleased with her choir this year. "Music is on an upswing at Arlington Heights," she commented. Then she added, "This is one of the best groups in a long time."

NCC Carries Culinary Appreciation to New Heights

the ever sanitary "Aunt Jemima" Ewing states the benefits of wearing a scarf.

"What'll it be Mac," asks an inquisitive "Boss Man" Stone.

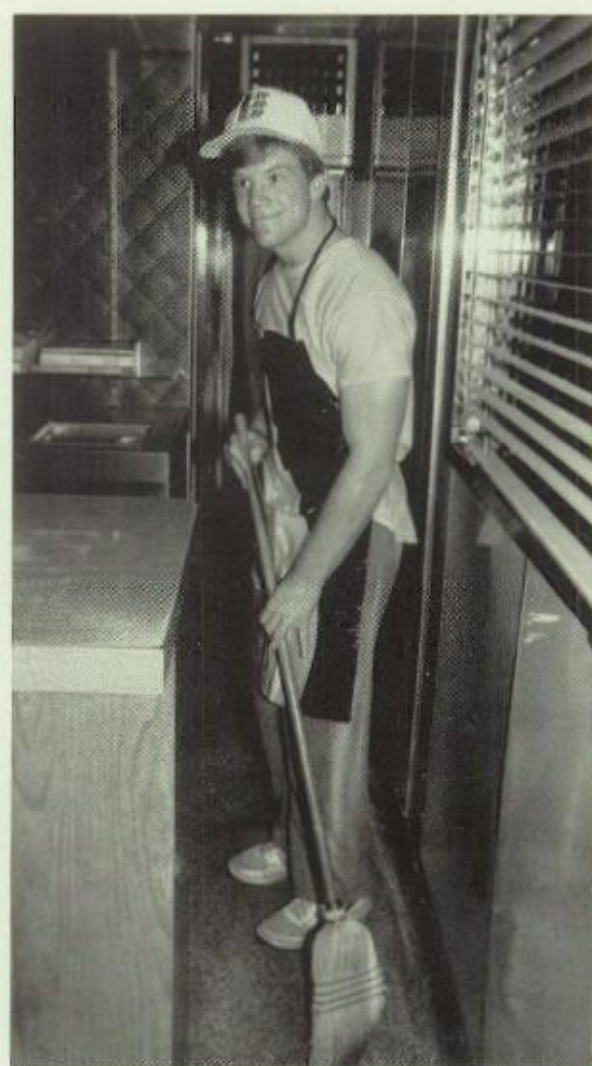

The Nouvelle Cuisine Council was an organization dedicated to the appreciation of exceptional food. Forever driven by a quest for excellence, the NCC found leadership and wisdom in the eyes of their mentors, Ms. Bernie and Ms. Grendel. Projects for the council included frequent late-night dining and reviewing gourmet restaurants.

Spanish Club Enjoys Prosperous Fund Raiser

Once again the Spanish Club was sponsored by Miss Helen Hale. Mrs. Janis Arnett, a new Spanish teacher to the Hill, assisted her with the club's activities. President, Zavdy Castro; Vice-President, Rose Mary Alvarez; Secretary, Jennifer Youngblood; Treasurer, Michele Smith and Sergeant at Arms, Tom Patillo worked together to plan the club's activities. A few of these activities included Christmas carolling downtown with the French Club, and a club picnic in the spring.

The club sold calendar posters and pocket planners as a fund raiser. The profits were used to buy magazines, newspapers, pinatas and other materials for the Spanish classes.

Officers: Michelle Smith, Treasurer; Jennifer Youngblood, Secretary; Rose Mary Alvarez, Vice-President; Zavdy Castro, President; and Miss Helen Hale, Sponsor.

French Club Experiences a Very Cultural Year

"I just love Frenchmen," says Lou Murrin, as guest speaker Guillaume Decitre and honorary member Arnaud Vallery Radot blush at her compliment.

The French Club had a very cultural and enjoyable year. The officers this year were Lou Murrin, President; Elizabeth Reynolds, Vice-President; John Sloane, Secretary; and Robin Borgers, Historian.

Led by Mrs. Norma Sivers, the club planned a different activity each month. They started out the year by having an exchange student from France, Guillaume Decitre, speak to them and show slides. During the holiday season, the activities included carolling and a Christmas party.

As a fund raiser, the club sold "Le Pops," and the profit went to the restoration of the Statue of Liberty. Other activities included an international food party with other language clubs and a movie night.

Competitions Highlight German Club in '85

With gummy bears in tow, the German Club members had their most successful season yet. Anuschka Hieber-Niebler told with enthusiasm how members sold gummy bears for cash profit. They also had fun-filled sausage parties and travelled to San Marcos' famed Sprach Fest. Members also travelled to Southwest for the Language Fair to compete in German language skill competitions.

Vice-president and part-time photographer Jeff Millegan said, "We have a great start in the new year and look forward to an even better future." Officers of the club include Anuschka Hieber-Niebler, president; Jeff Millegan, vice-president and photographer; Todd Reardon, secretary of foreign affairs, and Guy White, photographer. Once again, the club was sponsored by Mrs. Marilyn Ankenbauer.

The Latin Club Strives to Insure the Pax Romanus

Club Officers: Stephanie Hight, Bart Thornton, Steve Mear, and Melinda Ashworth.

The Latin Club of 1985 proved to be prolific in its activities despite the year being one of transition. Club sponsor, Ms. Cheryl Girton, brought new life to the dead language, sparking interest and boosting membership. This year enthusiastic members initiated a new Heights tradition: the selling of balloons for the Homecoming game. With this profitable endeavor tucked under their belt, club members went on to participate in the language fair and fulfilled a marvelous year.

Science Club Renews Itself Successfully at AHHS

For the first time in many years the Science Club was renewed at Arlington Heights. The Science Club was sponsored by Mrs. Franczyk. Babette Bogert served the club as President, and Toby Savitz served as Vice-President. They held many meetings throughout the fall. Most of the activities were planned for the spring. Among the activities were a nature outing and a geological dig. The science fair was also one of their key projects. All members share in common their interest in nature and love of science. Because of Mrs. Franczyk's enthusiasm, the Science Club had a successful year.

Members and Officers of the 1984-85 Science Club are: Cynthia Fitzpatrick, Secretary-Treasurer; Toby Savitz, Vice-President; Mrs. Franczyk, sponsor; Babette Bogert, President.

Math Club Continues Tradition of Excellence

Math Club Sponsor: Mrs. Kathryn Daniel

This year the Math Club demonstrated to a select group of students just how fascinating mathematics could be. Mrs. Kathryn Daniel combined tried leadership with state-of-the-art teaching techniques to make the 1984-85 Math Club the best within recent memory. Needless to say, members were academically enriched and still found time for activities in the wonderful world of mathematics. Although it was one of the smaller clubs this year, the Math Club was able to meet the needs and interests of its members.

1984-85 Math Club: Sharon Morgese, Mishon Powers, Steven Mear, George Papaliodis, Adam Honeckman.

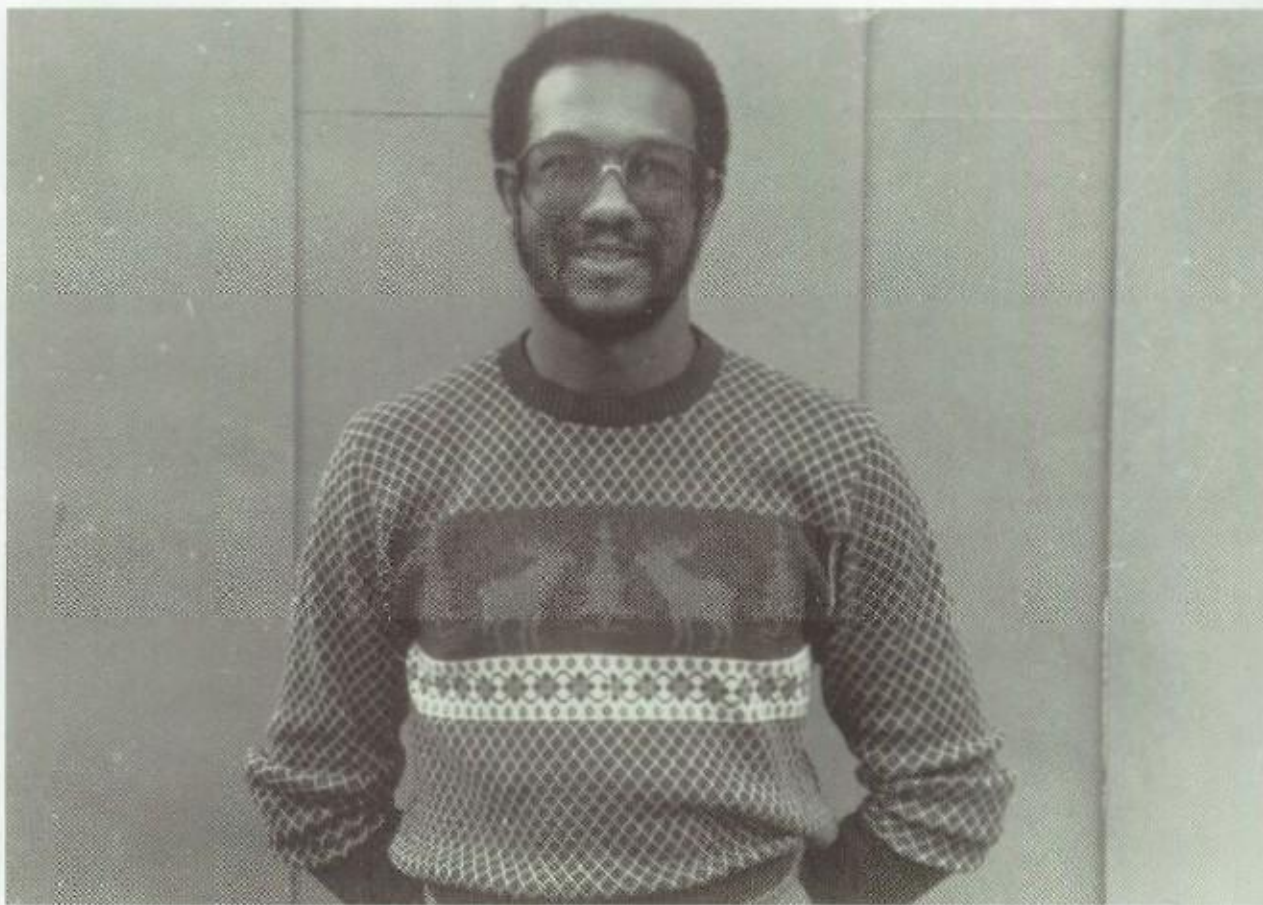

Chess Club Prepares Strategies for Competition

Completing their second year as a new club on the hill, the Heights Knights were off to a roaring start.

Sponsored by Mr. James Luckett, the Chess Club members met weekly to strengthen their chess playing abilities and strategies. The members competed among themselves for an award given to the best player.

During the year the Knights signed on as members in the United States Chess Federation. They competed locally with Chess Club members from various schools.

"We've had a good year, and I hope we can expand our membership for next year," said President Steve Rolls.

Youth-N-Government Takes Active Part in Politics

Sponsor: Mrs. Vivian Murphey

Youth and Government, an organization which simulates the actions of government utilizing parliamentary procedure at its finest, was sponsored by Mrs. Vivian Murphey this year. Members attended the city conference, district conference and state conference in Austin. At the four day convention in Austin, Youth and Government members were given full use of the state capitol. They were allowed to use the Senate and House chambers to debate bills, study cases, and write proposals just as the real members of the Senate and House would. All in all, Youth and Government members had a very exciting and fun year.

FHA Adds Taste to Life on the Hill

The Future Homemakers of America was sponsored by Mrs. Mary Ann Testa this year. Mrs. Testa led her class through the projects that benefitted the community and teachers. The group worked hard at cooking various dessert cakes to pay for activities. Also, cookies and cupcakes were baked and given to teachers at Christmas time. The FHA group was led this year by Camille Curry and Heather Scott, president and vice president respectively. They placed second in the FWISD High School Bake-Off with their entree.

OEA Uses Classtime to Prepare for Future

Mrs. Hamrick and the OEA officers.

The Office Education Association was sponsored this year by Juanita Hamrick. OEA is comprised of vocation office education students. The program encourages students to become involved in community and office affairs.

This year OEA competed in their annual state and national contest. The OEA also showed their appreciation to their employers by giving them a formal luncheon at Ridglea Country Club. This has been done by many OEA groups and is part of the Arlington Heights tradition.

The officers for this year's OEA Club are Cynthia Curby, president; Lanette Duran, vice-president; Angela Anderson, treasurer.

HECE Introduces New Teacher to the Hill

1984-85 HECE Club Officers.

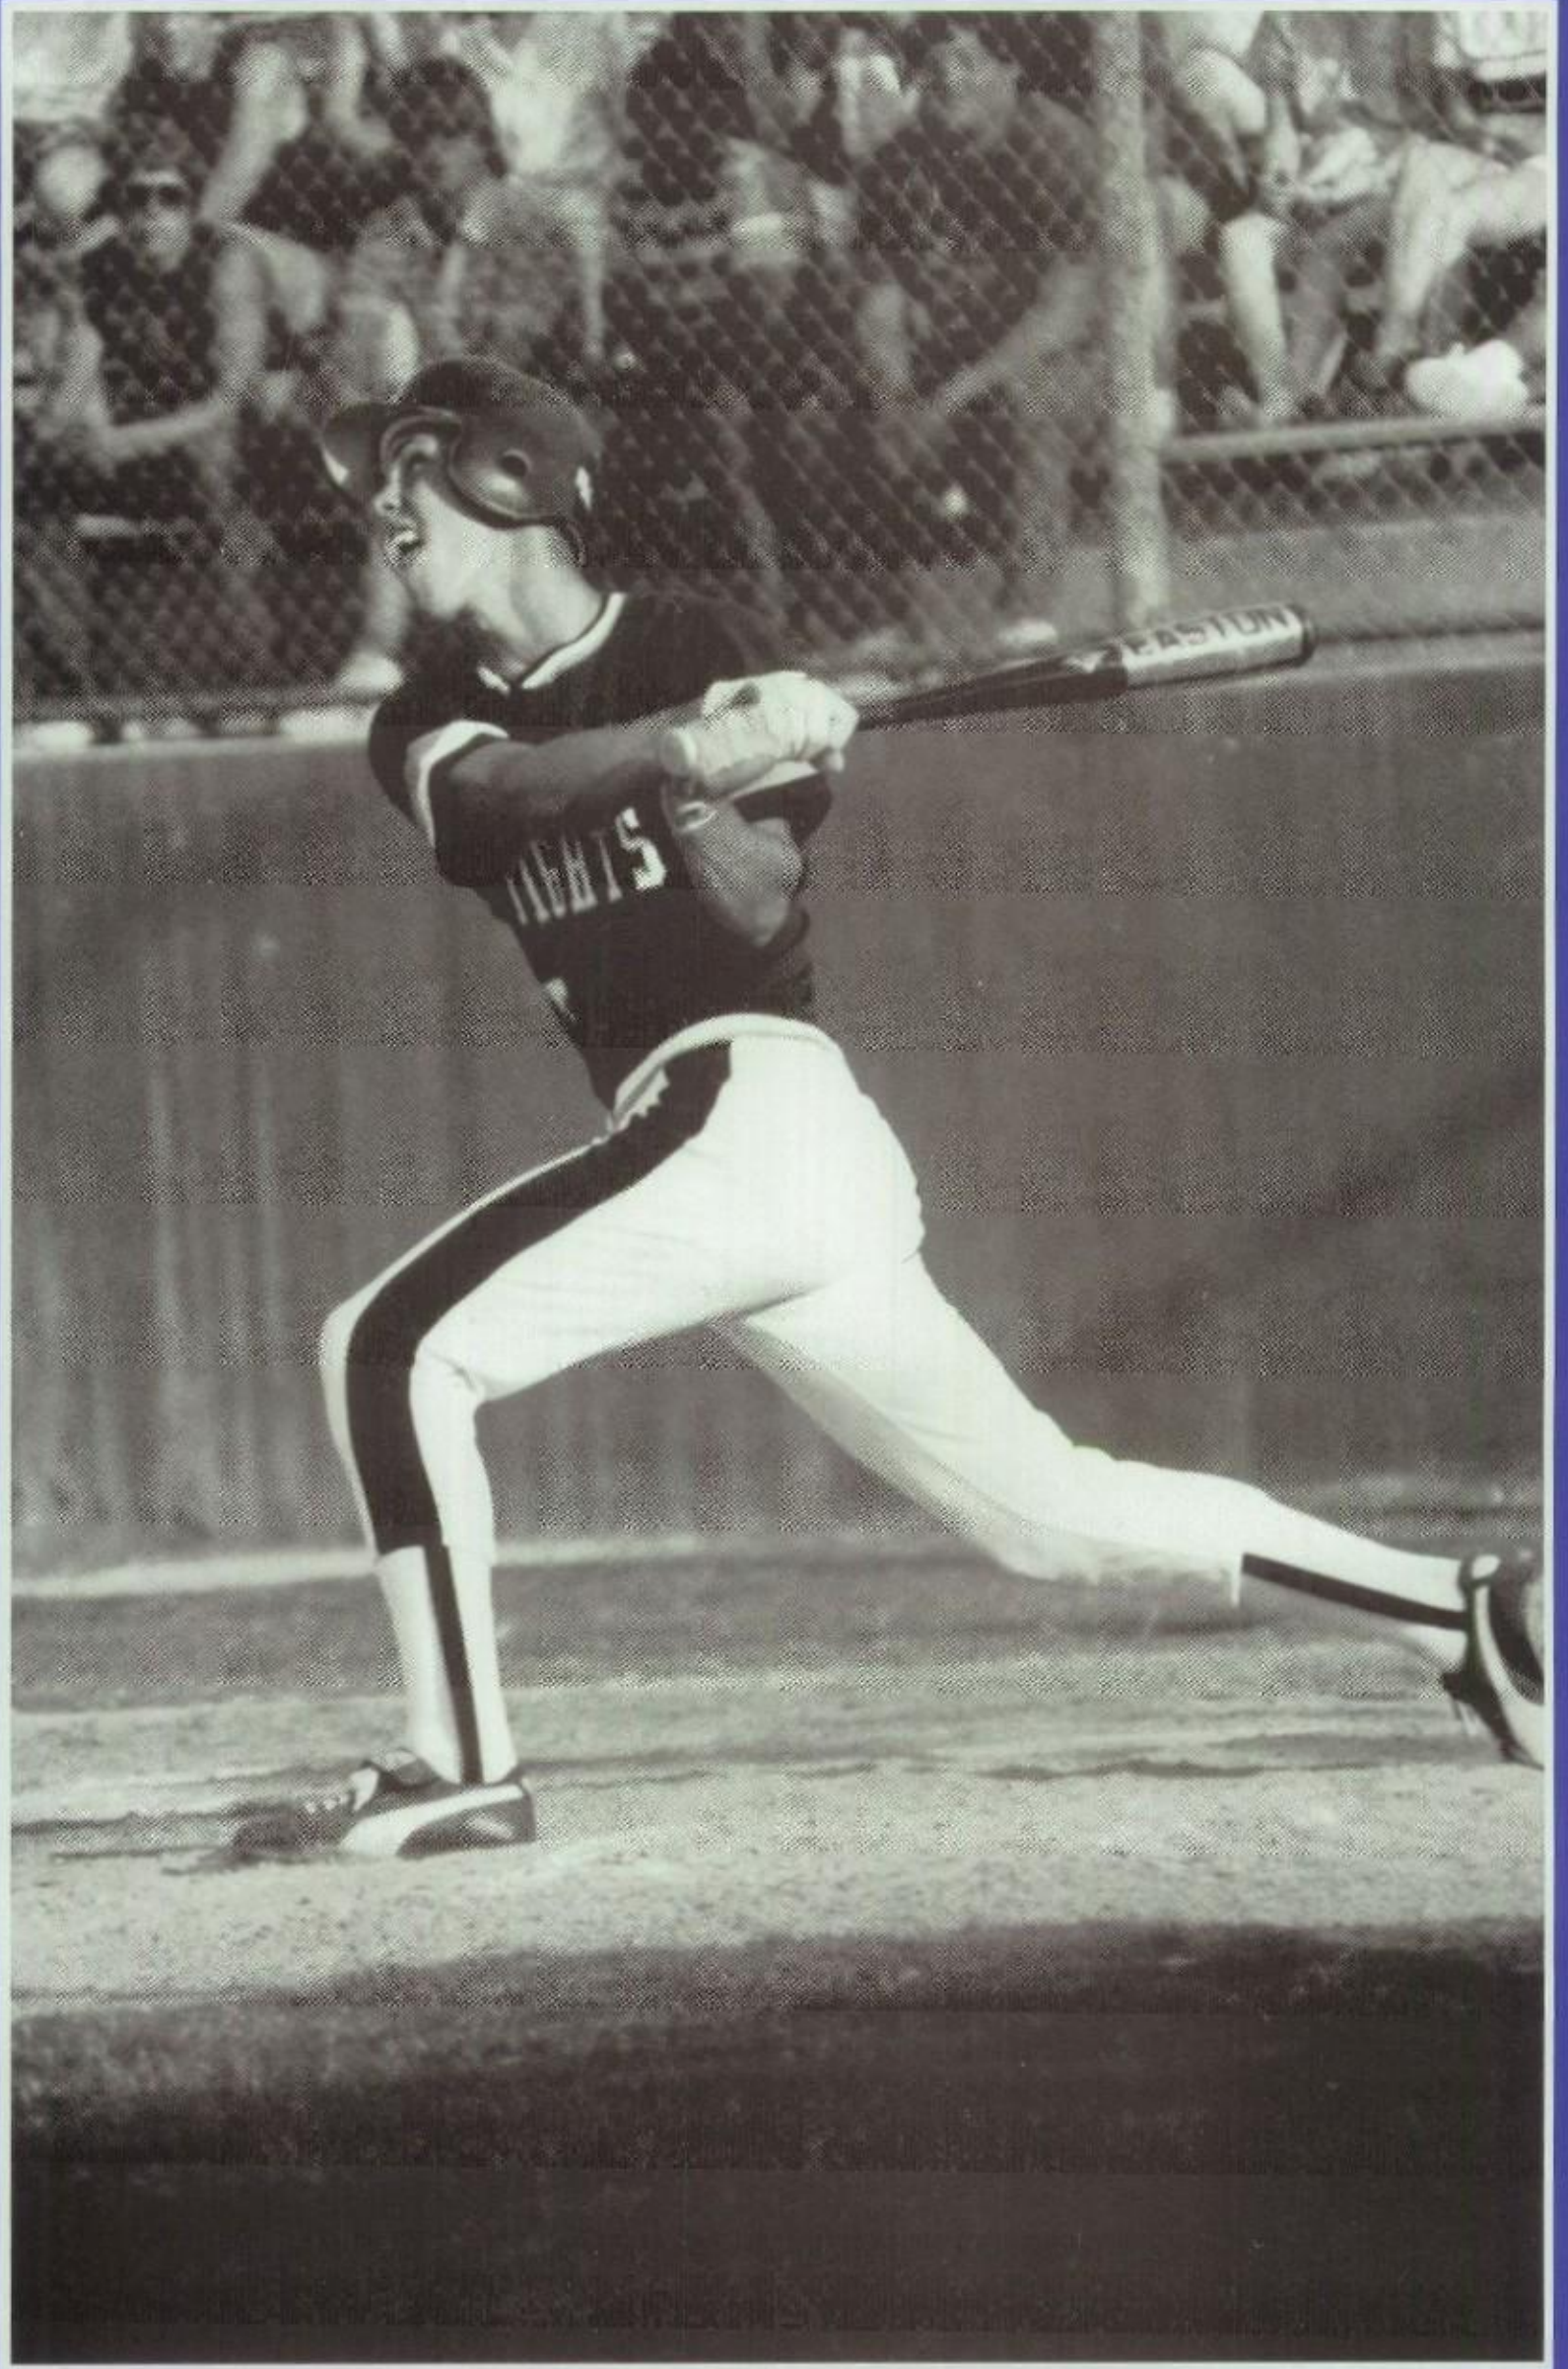

Home Economics Cooperative Education was sponsored by first year teacher, Mrs. Jannett Moss. This work program gives the student interested in fabric-related fields and food-related fields the chance to go to school and work at jobs with these trades.

This year HECE had several activities that kept them busy throughout the months. Among these was a breakfast provided for their respective employers. Also, four members traveled to the Dallas Market and Garment centers during the fall. The officers for HECE are Joyce Pratt, Brady Barham, Dawn Bailey, Jan Randle, Crystal Davis, and Antonio Wallace.

Winning Spirit Carries Team to a 7-3 Record

The 1984 Fighting Yellow Jackets again carried on the tradition of past Heights' teams this year. The team's performances kept Heights fans on their feet until the last whistle of the year was blown.

The Yellow Jackets opened the 1984 campaign with an impressive win over Mineral Wells, 23-13. The next week of the preseason play, the Jackets encountered a tough South Grand Prairie team and lost 49-23. In what proved to be the game that showed the spectators the Jackets were for real, they won a hard fought game against Arlington Martin, 14-7. Key performances were turned in by Tim Rax and Ben Barlow. Going into district with a 2-1 win-loss record, the team faced cross-town rival Western Hills. The Jackets proved to all, that they would challenge for the district title with an impressive 23-13 win over the helpless Western Hills Cougars with key performances by Tim Mauser and Tim Rax. The next week of district play the Jackets continued their march for the district title with a listless win over district-contender Dunbar by a score of 9-7. Aided by a superb defensive game and a blocked punt by John Applegate for a safety, the Jacket's hopes were still aimed for the title. The following game, was equally important to fans and players. At the Homecoming game, spirits flared as each team ran up and down the field putting points on the board, only to end up in the hands of the Yellow Jackets with a 36-20 trouncing of the Trimble Tech Bulldogs.

The following week, however, the Jacket's hopes were dampened by a 14-13 loss to Southwest. The team, despite a 14-7 deficit with 3:06 left in the game, came back within a point of the Rebels.

Yellow Jacket Togetherness Makes Team a Winner

The play was on a pass from Tim Mauser to Walter Reynolds covering thirty-seven yards. The team opted to try a two point conversion, but failed and was handed their first district loss of the year. The next game of the year was played against the nemesis Paschal Panthers. The Jackets gave an excellent performance both offensively and defensively. In the first half the Jackets opened up a 10-0 margin over the Panthers, aided by two interceptions by Tony Johnson. In the second half, the offense stalled, but the defensive squad preserved the win for the Jackets by limiting the Panthers to only seven points. The final score left the Jackets ahead 10-7.

Going into the next to last game of the season, the hopes of the Jackets were still set on the district title, yet getting into the playoffs was equally important. The Jackets proved to be up for the task as the team performed excellently. The final score left the Jackets a top 20-6 over the Eastern Hills Highlanders, with key performances from L. C. Timms and Chris Chevreaux. The final game of the year, as it turned out was against the Chaparrals of O. D. Wyatt. The winner of this game was headed to the state playoffs. As the evening continued break after break went against the Jackets. After a depressing outing the Jackets lost 24-12 to the Chaps.

In summary of the season, the team's combined effort and enthusiasm, along with the aid of the omniscient coaching staff, the Jackets produced a vintage year and a respectable 7-3 record.

Junior Varsity Team Coasts to the District Title

The 1984 Junior Varsity Team, under the able guidance of Coach John Leseman, breezed through the district challengers to capture the District Championship. The Junior Varsity team captured the title with a scarless record of 6-0. Including pre-season games the Junior Varsity compiled an overall record of 8-1.

Led offensively by the passing of Greg Kimmel, quarterback, and the catching of John Naylor, tight end, and Scott Meyer, split end, the Junior Varsity put an excessive amount of points on the board. With the help of Marty Bowen, flanker, Tony Gould, fullback, and John Sloan, tailback, the Junior Varsity chewed up yardage on the ground as well as through the air.

Defensively the Junior Varsity was led by Dennis Askins, linebacker, Mark Stevens, defensive guard, and Mark Sanders, defensive tackle. The defense limited opponents to just 11 points per game, with aggressive play and diligent eagerness.

This year's Junior Varsity team shows promise for next year's Varsity team. The coaches feel strong about next year's squad, and have high hopes as well as high expectations.

Frosh Football Team Gains Share of District Title

Newcomers to the Hill start off with a big sting. This year's Freshman Football Team with a record of 6-1 showed promise for future Yellow Jacket teams.

Led by Johnny Jones and Joe Collier the team's offense showed ability to score an abundance of points, while the defense led by Joe Mullholland and Donald Reynolds stunned opponents with their amazing ability to bend but not break. Under the direction of Coach Tommy Elliott the teams efforts helped them gain a share of the District title.

The 1984-85 Junior Varsity cheerleading squad was headed by Mrs. Paulette Lyons and second-year sponsor Mrs. Evelyn Collins. There were five sophomore girls and five freshmen girls. As was the new policy this year, the sophomore girls cheered at the J.V. games only, freshman girls cheered at the freshman games. The Junior Varsity squad, as a whole, attended a cheerleading camp in the first part of August at Southern Methodist University of Dallas, where they learned cheers and ways to promote spirit on the Hill. Each week the girls sold football programs before the start of each Varsity game. They also participated in practices after school several times a week.

"Arlington Heights is number one and don't you forget!" exclaims Junior Varsity Cheerleader, Leigh Ann Pyeatt.

Kara Baldwin enthusiastically executes a new cheer.

Awesome Spirit Is Shown by Varsity Cheerleaders

The Varsity cheerleaders, headed by second-year sponsor Mrs. Susan Gregory, enjoyed a year of promoting spirit at Heights. The squad consisted of six senior girls, six junior girls and a junior mascot. The girls worked very hard painting signs, baking cakes and cookies, decorating the field house and demonstrating overall genuine school pride. As in the past, all members of the squad attended a cheerleading camp at Southern Methodist University, where they learned cheers, dances, sideline chants, and the newest spirit yells. Extra activities of the cheerleaders included selling school t-shirts, and popcorn for the squad fund, and helping the Booster Club sell plaques.

Hoopers Pull Through a Tough Season

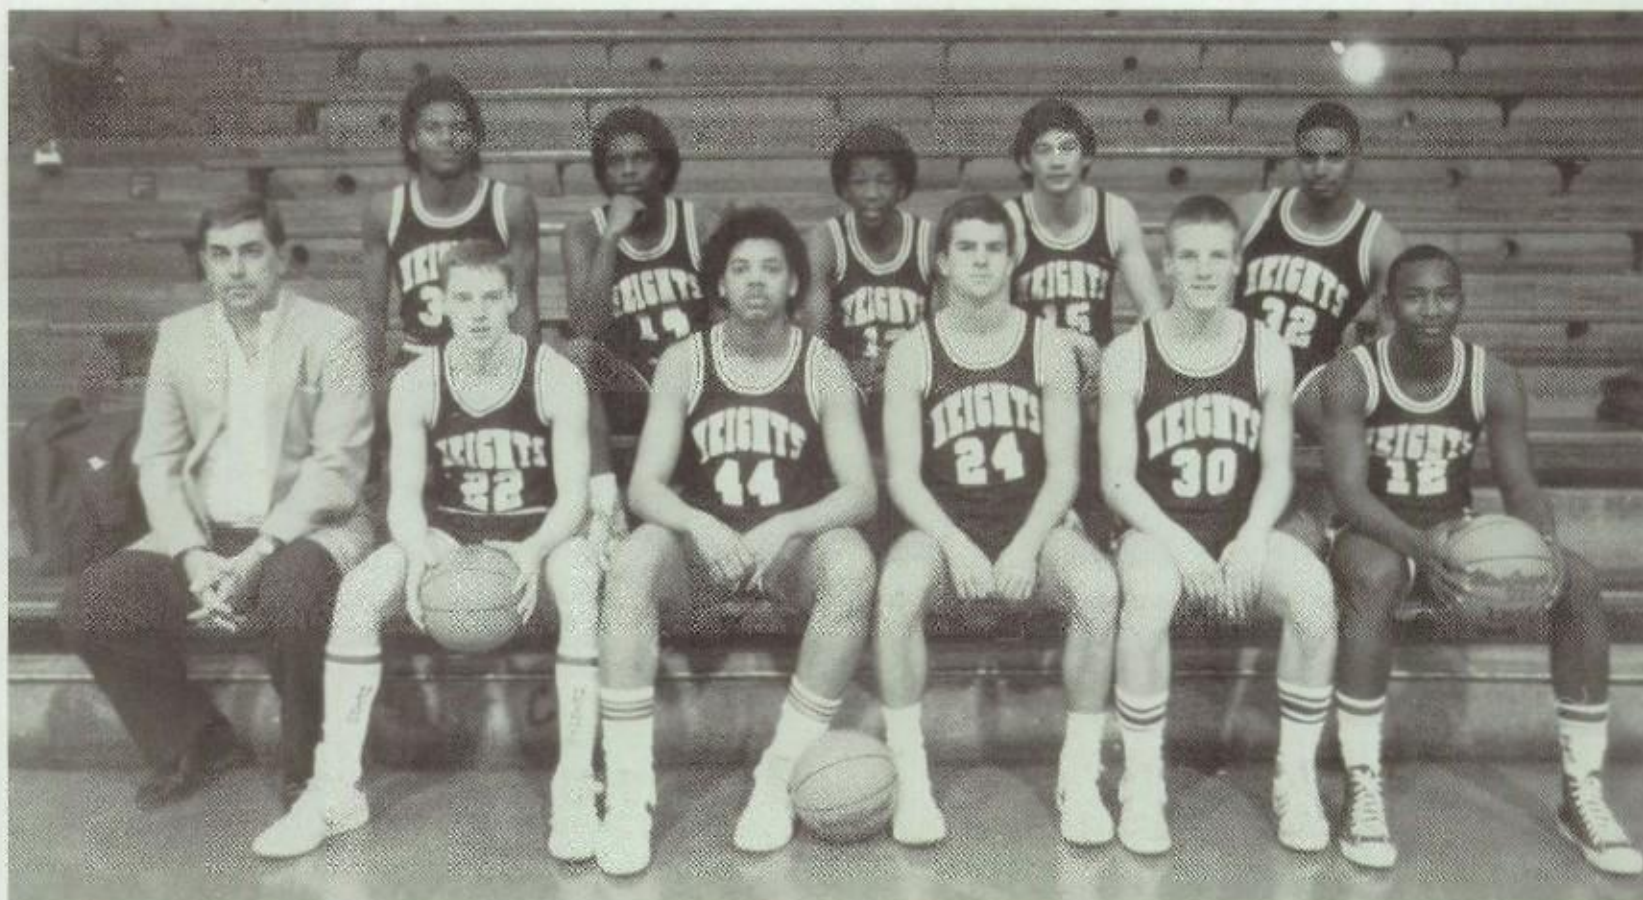

The boy's varsity basketball team overcame a few mishaps this year to finally become a unit of great quality and pride. It was hard to work with a squad in which its players were coming and going, but Coach Nabors did a good job. The team was one of inexperience.

Veteran Steve Booker,

led the Jackets with his amazing moves and swishing jumpers. Todd Rapp and Ben Barlow, evolved into awesome ball players and did their best on the court and bench. Joe Cooper was often mistaken for Moses Malone. Reggie Johnson's best shot was his two-handed, three-sixty, double-handed, slamma-jamma. Robert Groomes was an incredible leaper and sank many a bank shot. The most physical and aggressive player was Charles Rosborough. Donald Reynolds pulled through for the team with his 25 footers and the rest of his incredible talent.

The tipoff man, and best inside man was Courtney Hill. Kelvin "Tweety" Dixon produced well in all phases of the game. L. C. Timms was a leader with his positive attitude and ability to bounce back from his mistakes. The team appreciated its few supporters.

J. V. Cagers Develop Skills and Gain Experience

The Arlington Heights High School Junior Varsity boys' basketball team, coached by Larry Waters, had a good time this season. Coach Waters, the "All-American" coach; always told his players their mistakes and strove for excellence in them.

The J.V. got lots of practice everyday scrimmaging the Varsity. Each and every player improved greatly during the season, preparing themselves for varsity competition.

Ed Gray, Gerald Ross, Scott Meyers, Cedric Doty, Eric Doris, Chris Davis, Danny Ross, and Richard Craney, all added excitement to basketball at Heights.

Lady Jackets Slam-Dunk a Spectacular Season

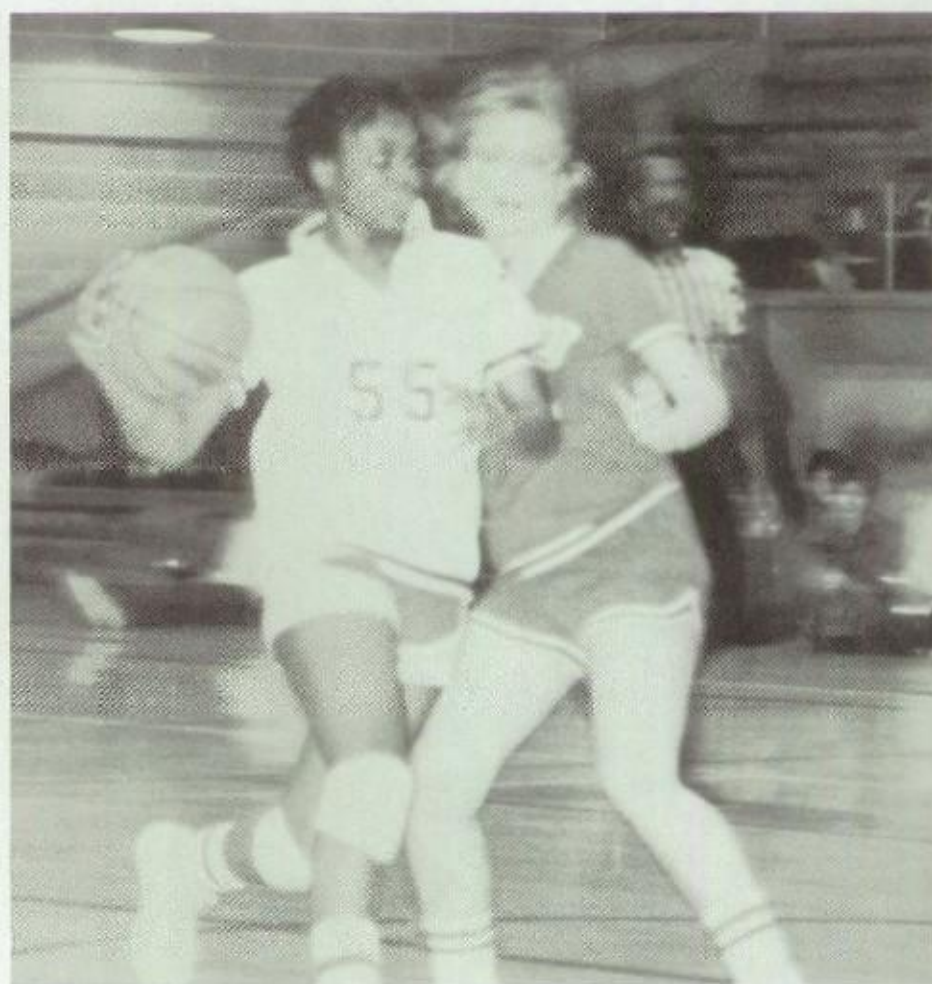

The JV and Varsity Girls' Basketball teams were led by a new addition to the Hill, Miss Laura Morton. The coach for the freshman team was Mr. James Luckett. All three of the teams had exceptional years, especially the varsity girls' with a 10-4 record in district. "These girls were a really fun group to work with," said Coach Morton, "they made my first year here very enjoyable."

Competitive Tracksters Set District Title as Goal

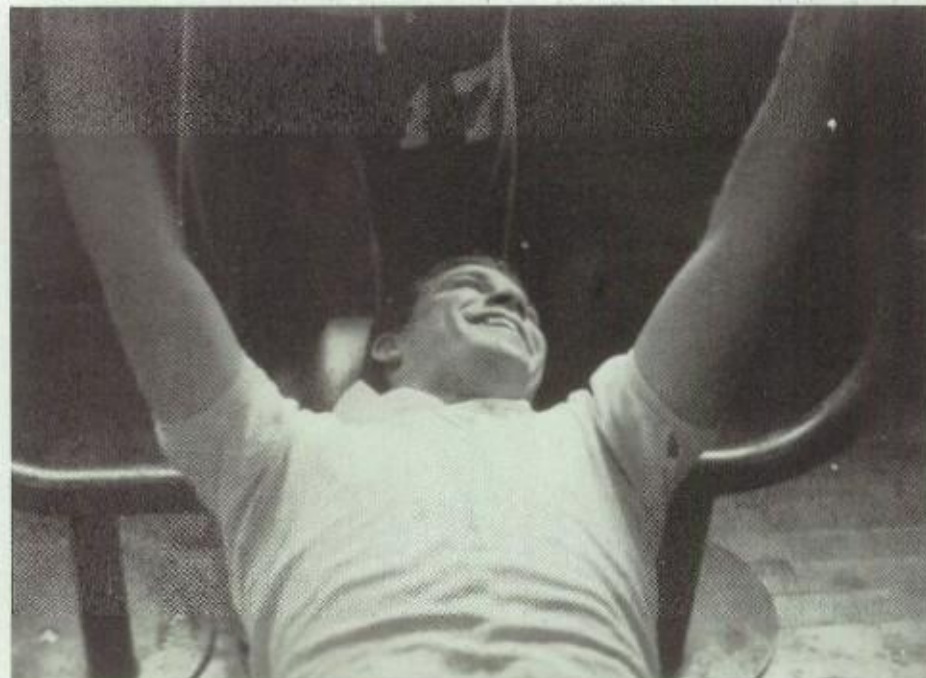

This season the boys' track team was led by Coach Joe Galiga. With lots of hard work, dedication, and determination, this team proved to be a very successful one. They competed in the Cougar Relays, Cowtown Relays, and the Annual Indoor Meet. "We had an excellent group this year and next year's team has a promising future," commented Coach Galiga.

"Hurry! We'll be late for Chemistry," exclaims Allan Brants to his fellow track mates.

JV, Varsity Girl Tracksters Set District as Goal

Jimmy Jenkins, once again coached the J.V. and Varsity Girls' Track Teams. This year the Varsity team faced a year of rebuilding after the graduation of several top runners. At the same time the J.V. team worked to have a prosperous Varsity team next year. The hard practices of both teams paid off in the spring meets and the big District Meet.

Girls Varsity Volleyball Jumps to New Heights

The Varsity Volleyball team had an exceptional year. They were coached by Mickey Pelley, whose primary emphasis was on teamwork this year. The team came in second place in district only behind Southwest, who was defeated by the Yellow Jackets. They were defeated in bi-district by Richland High School. For the season the team came out with twelve wins and only two losses. Two of the players for the all-district team were Corrie Hill and Aaron Farris. The teamwork Coach Pelley stressed really paid off. The student body is extremely proud of the outstanding accomplishments of the Lady Jackets.

"We always follow orders!" exclaim the jubilant Varsity Volleyball girls.

Girls Volleyball Shows Improvement This Season

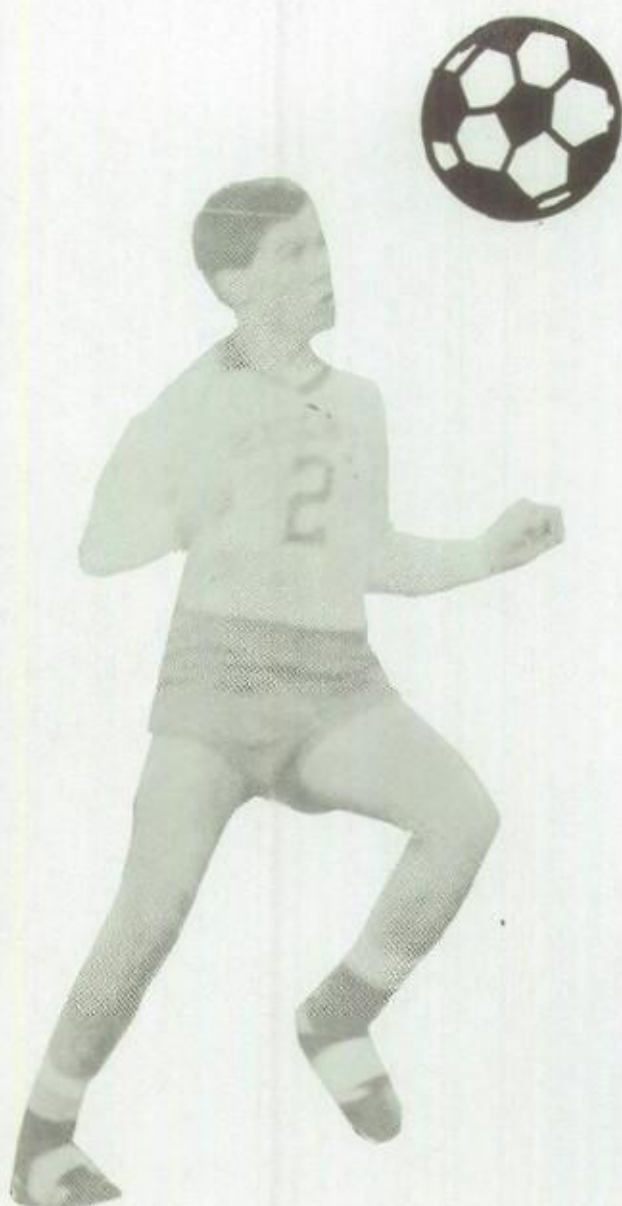

The Junior Varsity Volleyball team had a great season this year. They were encouraged and guided by Coach Jack Warren. The team had a much better season than last year and showed a great amount of improvement from last year. The freshman team had a turbulent season. Many felt the reason for this was because the team didn't get a chance to play in many games or tournaments. They did exhibit great effort, though. The team was coached by James Luckett. The student body of Arlington Heights is immensely proud of the accomplishments and efforts these two teams have shown. The attempts made by these teams are a step in the right direction toward the improvement and advancement of girls athletics at Arlington Heights.

Soccer

Varsity Soccer
Bi-District Champs

This year's team was not, by any means, in a losing predicament many times. As a matter of fact the teams compiled record was 14-4-3; and was ranked third in the state.

The team then proceeded into district play, and came out with a scarless record of 5-0-2. The team's high hopes to continue on to state fell to the hands of a tough El Paso team by the score of 3-2 in overtime.

The team's tenacity kept them kicking until the final whistle. Coach Warren was proud of his team and hopes to repeat the success next year.

Boys Cross Country Runs With Sheer Determination

This year's Boys Cross Country Team under the leadership of Coach Jenkins had a fairly successful year. They participated in several meets this Fall including the Country Day Invitational Meet in which they placed fifth. In their second meet, they placed another fifth. Against the Arlington Colts, our guys came out in a hard-fought fourth place. These events were all in September and early in the season. By the time of district competition in late October, the team was in much better shape. They finished the season as number three in district. Coach Jenkins feels that this year's team improved greatly during the season.

Coach Jimmy Jenkins and his Girls Cross Country Teams had a very successful year. Both the Varsity and Junior Varsity Teams won District. The District meet was held for the third year at the Texas Christian University Golf Course during the month of October. When November came along, the Varsity Girls Team was off to Regionals held in Lubbock, Texas. The girls did very well and finished twentieth out of one hundred and eighteen schools. This concluded an eventful season for Jimmy Jenkins and his Girls Cross Country Teams. Coach Jenkins anticipates another great season next year.

Jacket Golfers Swing Toward Excellence

The 1984-85 Golf Team was coached by Coach Rob Dixon. This past fall, the boys and girls golf teams practiced at Z. Boaz Golf Course. In the spring, they practiced at Pecan Valley Golf Course. Both teams participated in three tournaments in the fall, the girls finishing twice in second place and once in third place; and the boys team finished ninth, twelfth, and fourteenth. Some of the top players were Holly Haas, Wendy Wood, Kelly Foy, Steve Graf, Steve Spears, Bryan West, Glen Siler, and Mike Ashworth. This spring the team went to tournaments held in Denton, Plano, Irving, and Ardmore, Oklahoma. The team showed a great amount of enthusiasm, and Arlington Heights is proud of the dedication all the golfers showed.

Tennis Team Competes in Regional Competition

The 1984-85 Arlington Heights Tennis Team placed second in the fall team district, and then went on to play in the Regional Competition in Abilene, Texas. Coach Laura Morton, who also taught girls' basketball at Heights, was new to the Hill this year. She was previously at Stripling Middle School where she taught P.E.

Leading the team this year were seniors Jennifer Mayo and Todd Rapp, and juniors Michelle Alread and Jace Simmons. Coach Morton was very proud of both Varsity and J.V.

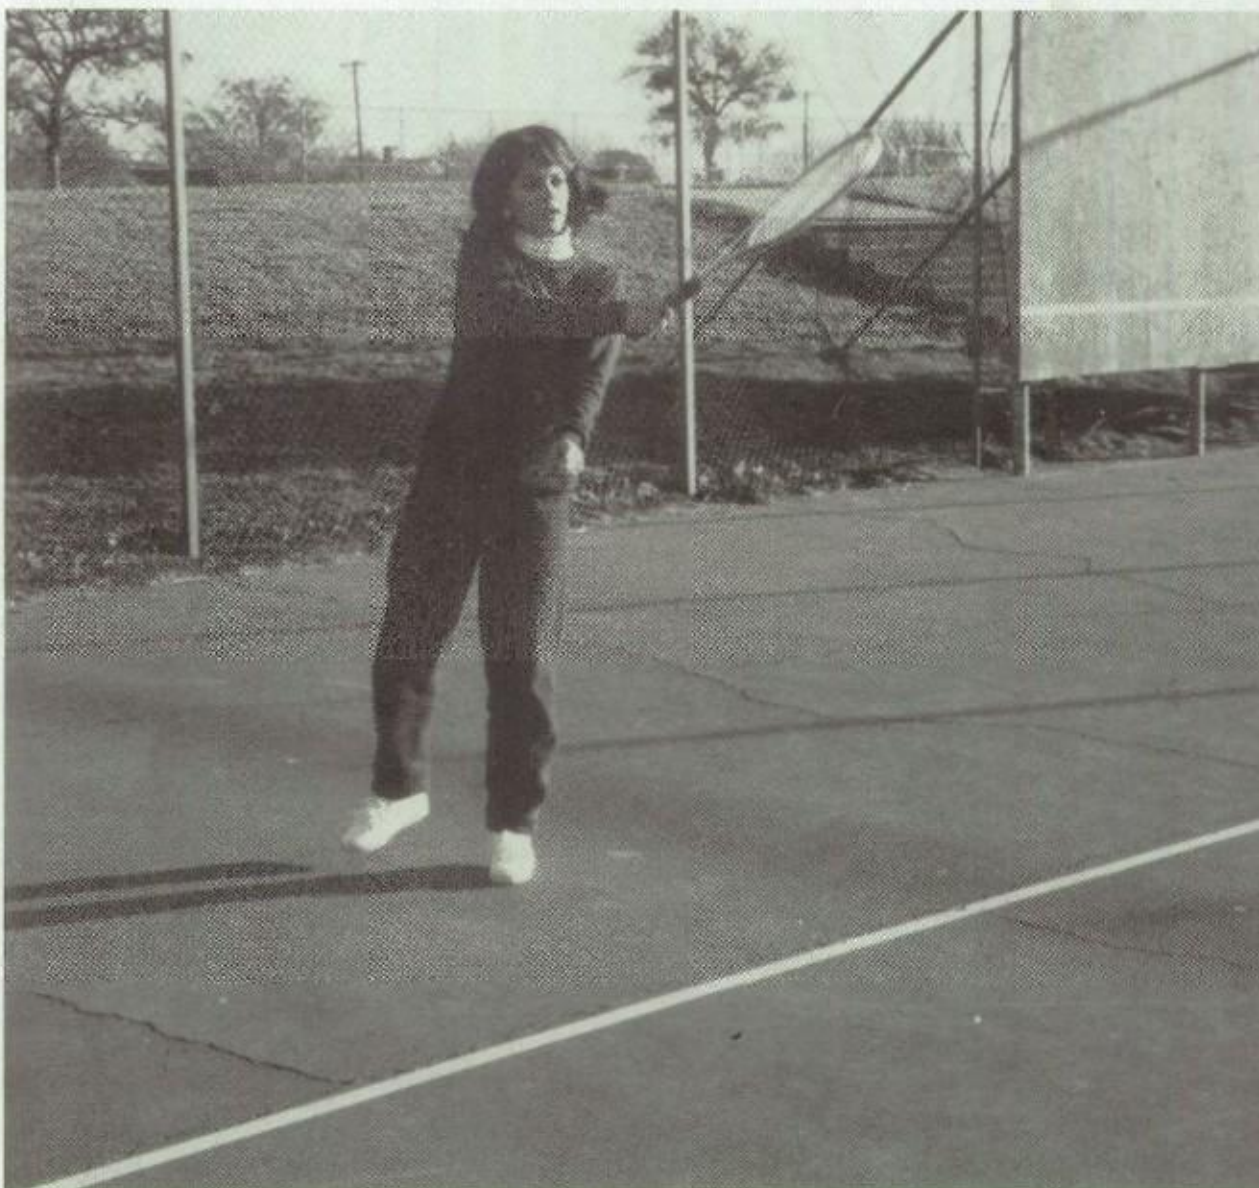

The team worked out during first period and after school. Challenge matches were planned with Texas Tech, Eastern Hills, O. D. Wyatt, Western Hills, Southwest, Dunbar, and Paschal. Dual meets were also organized against Everman and Boswell.

The tradition continued according to Coach Tommy Elliott and players. The 1985 Arlington Heights Varsity Baseball Team had a promising outlook for the upcoming year.

The team started off the year in the Houston Bellaire Chamber of Commerce Tourney. The squad also participated in the South Grand Prairie Tourney. This year's team returned seven lettermen and several players from the District winning J.V. squad of last year. For the year there were twenty games scheduled and the two above tournaments. With returning pitchers Steve Booker and Tim Mauser and consistent play from Steve Gauntt, George Gamez, Tom Hardgrove, and Frank Vargas, this year's team had high hopes to make the playoffs.

Swim Team Makes a Big Splash on the Hill

The Arlington Heights Swim Team was led by Scott Colby, the aquatic director — and swim coach for the entire district. The swim team as a whole had a fairly successful year with top contributions by Leigh Ann Pyeatt for the girls' team, A. J. Summers for the boys' team, and Will Stone for diving. The district meet was held on March 1-2, and the state meet was held March 15-16 at UT in Austin.

"This is really my better side," quips A. J. Summers.

In perfect form, an AHHS Swim Team member sprints for the finish line.

"I'm ready!" says Leigh Ann Pyeatt.

IN MEMORIAM

“Bold, Cautious, True,
and My Loving Comrades.”

Having two editors instead of one was a real plus because not only did it allow for a more diverse book, but it cut the work load in half, too. The staff this year was absolutely the most creative ever to come out of Heights! Their positive attitudes and willingness to work made the transition which occurred this year bearable.

To our staff:

To those of you going to college, we thank you for your input and wish you the best of luck in the future. For those remaining on staff keep up the great work! Last, but by no means least, bless you, Mrs. Curry, for your endless devotion!

We Love You!

Carl!

You big Cutie! I can't believe we've made it through! We have had some fun times together! It seems like just yesterday we were in the back seat of the suburban getting in trouble (You, me, Mary, Leslie, Liza, Roy, etc...) You are really a great guy! I hope you have fun and keep in touch! Good Luck & may all your dreams come true! Love ya
Mrs Walraven

Carl,
As I was saying I really don't know where out. Except for, I guess to beginning. I think already know what you mean to me. (I'm serious) This is your last year - last couple years - and I'm very proud of you for achieving much. I love you so much - remember all the good times we've been through. I think the best times we've been when we were alone. Right? Ya. We've been dating for what now - 22 months. You know what they say - Oh well - I'm sure we'll figure out what they say anyway. I love you a lot - I know you already know that. I also wish you the best of life. I know you deserve it - although I really do not deserve the rotten person I am. Right?
I know I'll definitely be with you this summer and better. I really can't wait until the 4th of July we'll be a blast - like ~~so~~ always. I really need to apologize for all the rotten things I've done to you - there's too much to write. I just hope you'll remember I'm just human - therefore I'm not perfect (as you already know). Anyway, I'm running out of room I'll wrap it up. I LOVE YOU!!!

Love

I don't know either? I'm sorry
I threw up on you last year. The dance was just too much fun. Amazingly and even shockingly you have talked to me a lot more this year. I always thought you hated me (I mean I still do.) Call me sometime,

- is for caring that you show me.
- is for the animal characteristics of your being
- is for the really great guy you are.
- is for your loving tenderness.

- is for the warmth of your love.
- is for everything you give me.
- is for all the niceties you fill me up with
- is for the touching person you are
- is the wonderful guy that you are

- is for the only one in my life.
- is for the real hunk you are
- is for the tenderness of your touch
- is for the happiness you give me.

Put them all together they spell "Oh Gorgeous G"
And this is what you'll always mean to me a great year. I hope we can still go out and it be embarrassed to be seen with a pooler. You had better keep in touch! This er we'll go to Eastland a bunch. We need to go get my traps. Their probably ing. Well I've got to go but I swear had better keep in touch, even if you a school that's not around here!

we do I even start? Can you believe that this over? I can't! I remember us back at all to! What a joke! I've broken you for all Carl and I'll always love you! We're t of fun together and I hope we will have e more good times. I hope that you will ep in touch because you are a special end! Be careful this summer and I hope at you get everything out of life that u want because you deserve it! Don't

Carl -
 Well its been great, we've been friends for a long time. Lets keep it that way, Hatter! Well well have to raise some this summer and go to the lake + shore + mess with ayle + Boswell people, just watch out for Cobras.

 Maybe I will see you there this summer. Hope you have a great summer. I'm glad we became friends.

Carl,
 Spanish sucks.
 But it's been cool knowing you. Have a kick-ass summer.

ITS HIGH SCHOOL

Carl, These last four years have been something to remember.
 We have gone through a lot together and hopefully we will go through more together. And ~~way~~ I hope you have a great time in college. You have to come see OLE miss and stay at my house up here. Keep in touch over summer. Good Luck.
